Mr. M. Drexel Rutherford
"The Woodhouse"
warrenville Road
Wheaton, Illinois

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

While I was searching the records of Duplin county North Carolina recently I found the will of Jesse McLendon mentioning son DENNIS McLENDON. I am enclosing a very brief abstract of same. If you desire the will in full I shall be glad to send it.

In the Department of Archives at Raleigh, I found a militia muster roll of old Dobbs county from which Duplin was formed. In the 1761 roll Dennis McClendon is an ensign. I am sure you recall that the title ensign was at one time during the colonial period used by the army.

In the Department of Archives of Georgia there is a large file listed "McCLENDON FAMILY". It was contributed by S.E. McClendon of New Orleans Nov. 14, 1945. I shall be glad to copy this unless you feel it may duplicate data you have already received from him.

I am working on the Mississippi census records you requested and shall send them on as soon as possible.

I shall attempt the search of the records at Monticello this week.

The photostat of the bounty grant does indicate Revolutionary service. At one time it was accepted by the D.A.R. also S.A.R. Since their requirements have become more rigid, I am not sure that it will still be accepted. It is possible, but not probable that it was given for other service.

Sincerely yours,

Ann Fisher

P.S. EARLY RECORDS OF GEORGIA by Grace G. Davidson has many references to Dennis McClendon. Shall I copy these, or do you have them?

PETITIONS 1770-1789

Petition of inhabitants of Anson County, said county being devided the last Assembly, yet habitants labor under the greatest hardships by reason of great distance from the Court House, said county being 90 miles in length and 38 in breadth, the river running through near the middle, and seldom can be crossed without expense of ferriages and sometimes not at all passable; pray to have the county divided into two counties with the Peedee River the dividing line. Oct. 1779:
Signers: Thos, Scott, John Scott, Patrick Bogan, William Head, John Smith, Wm. Flanagin, Peter Watson, Thomas Miers, Joe Benton, Nathl. Scott, John Stanfill, Richard Odum, Jesse Bales, Charles Medlock, Jas. Lisenbe, Benj. Merritt, Matt Rushing, Sam Jackson, Thos. Gaddy, William Scott, William Ea..... Jesse Miller, Ezekiel McClendon, John Maclendon, and others.

Oct. 23, 1779. Law passed in H.C. dividing Anson County, Richmond Co. created. Petition of inhabitants of Anson Co.(1783) to General Assembly showing that whereas an act of the Assembly appointed commissioners to fix a place in Anson Co. to build a courthouse within two miles of the center of said county, it appears from the plan thereof to be remote from the bulk of inhabitants and a very poor settlement of barren black jack land unfitting for public roads, etc. a remedy whereof the petitioners pray an act empowering commissioners to build courthouse on plantation of Wm. Bert, which is high, dry land, well watered etc. (End of petition torn off including a few signatures).

LIST OF MAJOR JAMES COTTON'S ACCOUNTS, 1776

The claim of the Loyalist, Major James Cotton, a former Justice of Anson Co. against the British Government, for his losses, contains the following:

A List of outstanding debts in the Province of North Carolina due James Cotton, Esq. by bonds, notes and book accounts February 1776, when the obligations and books fell into the hands of the enemy, which list was made out to the best of his knowledge, together with the help of Capt. Walter Cunningham, his assistant surveyor of land in that province, who for some time lived in his family, was well acquainted with his affairs and also the several debtors here inserted.

Dennis McClendon appears as a petitioner. Also a Dennis McClendon appears in the N.C. Colonial Records, Vol. 4, p. 805 as having been granted land in Craven County, in 1746, which is in the extreme eastern part of the State.

SAR files, I have one of our McLendon applications -- Joel McLendon (b. May 17. 1779) and Susannah May (b. July 16, 1777) were m. July 8, 1809. It is not stated where this Joel lived but I think it was Anson County. If I remember correctly, there are two other Joels -- all contemporaries.

From: William G. Smith

McLENDON

I am enclosing some data which I was able to locate after you wrote me recently, re: the Owen line. I am sure this is new to you and believe it should prove of much interest. I feel certain that I have found additional data of your McClendon line to which you but recently referred to for the first time. I decided to see what might turn up on a possible 1812 pension search; I examined all of this name which they had for any such of the namce in Georgia at that time. There were seven pensions. Upon examining all, I found that only one, the one enclosed, that of Joel and wife Sarah, fitted our search. I think you will agree that these were the parents of your Elizabeth Ann McClendon. Note that Joel had a daughter Sarah who in 1870 was still unmarried and living with her mother in her brother's family. The Doctor whom you also mentioned; I judge the "J" stands for Jacob. I did not find him in the 1850 record, but perhaps he was away studying to be a doctor.

This data also shows that the McClendons came from North Carolina, where Joel was born in 1784-85 and that his wife was a White, born in Georgia. I hope to search furhter on both of these lines, with good luck.

Now in the pension application, note that J. McClendon and Sarah W. were married in Jasper County, Georgia. I am enclosing a search there for 1830 and 1840, but did not find Joel, Sr. either year, although a younger Joel is shown in 1830. My guess is that some time after 1835, when Joel's daughter Sarah was born in Georgia, the family moved to to Alabama. I believe, for one thing the examiner's pension notes noted that Joel was in Chickasaw County, Miss. 1850-1855 during which time, he made two applications for land. Another think note that several children of William Mc, were born in Alabama. I believe that William Mc. was a son of Joel, also recall that several of the children of your Augustus Owen, were born in Alabama. Referring again to the Jasper County records, note quite a number of McClendon families. This might be of value in later searches.

The McClendons are of pure Scotch ancestry of the Macounean, Seal Thinean Clan of Roeshire, name transformed into McClendon and Maclennion- original was Mac-Chilenemain. They were usually enrolled among the Frazier and McKinzie clans in the different rebellions. Interesting history (account States) of the family in Scottish Clans and their Tartans. A noted chief of the Logans of Druindeurfair in Roeshire, called Gillergram, was the originator of the clan McClendon.

4-1 Joel McClendon of Craven Co., N. C. 1722- The name was not very plain but I believe it was intended for McClendon. It seemed to be McClenkin. But Joel was certainly granted land in Craven Co., N. C. 1747. He was probably the first Joel McClendon in America. In 1722, we had in so far as known only about seven McClendons as head of Families in U. S. These were John, Wm., Isaac, Wilson, Thomas, Bryant and Francis. Dennis 1st and Dennis 2nd of these had died and we have their families. We have nothing of John. Probably have a will of Wm. in Edgecomb Co., tho this is not correctly spelled. Of Isaac and Wilson nothing on them since 1705. We know Thomas moved down through N. C from Perquimans Co to Craven or Bladen Co . to about 1748 when he had been cut off in Johnson Co. and I believe about the last record of him was in 1748. Perhaps he died about this time, tho we have found nothing of his administrath About 1744 in asking for a land grant he gave his reason for wanting more land was that he had 17 in his family. Slaves were included in the family when asking for land grants and he was entitled to 50 acres for himself and each member of the family including slaves. He had been granted many acres before h this . I have above named the McClendons who we suppose may have been the children of Thomas McClendon

Dear Sir;

In reference to our conversation about the Lovelace family in Kent county, England, I am enclosing data that I think might be of interest in locating the family, with dates etc.

Then, I state the things I wish to know and then about the cost of looking up these records.

Now, in reference to the grave of Dennis McClendon, and the XXXX husband of Elizabeth Maxwell McClendon, I have looked over my records, which were copied several years ago from the original notes, I failed to put down the ladies name who said she had seen his tombstone and had promised me to look it up and let me know what was on it. However, she lived, I remember, at Godfrey, Ga., may be some 5-6 miles from the cemetary. This lady claimed to have been related to the McClendons, but she did not know how. I worked up her line as best, I could, and decided that she was related only through marriage and of no real relation.

You will remember that Frances McClendon the sister of your Joel, m ist Lot Hearn. The Hearns were a prominent family in Putnam Co., She m 2nd John Swenson. THey had intermarried and all seemed to have settled out in the Old Hearn- McClendon settlement, which was then on the road from Macon Ga. North to Jasper Co etc. When the rail road was built through, it caused a relocation of the highways and the Old Hearn settlement was left off the highway, but an enquiry from the Court House Officials I think would tell you where it could be found. When I was at the Court House

I was told all about this Old Hearn- McClendon location. I was told about this lady living at Godfrey who was perhaps related to the McClendons. Grodfrey was on the new highway going north from Edenton-County ~~AAA~~ seat- and was living at the crossing at Godfrey and was a lady about my age. She assured me that she had seen this tomb stone of Dennis McClendon, tho not being interested specially and it was a number of years back, that she did not remember what was on it. She did promise me that she would go down and see it for me, and that I would pay her for the trip etc. She told me that Frances Swanson was buried by the side of Lot Hearn- her first husband- in the Hearn cemetary near Godfrey, Ga. " The Francis McClendon home was between the Hearn and Sammons place. There is a McClendon cemetary on the place,which has stones in it. I suppose this has the stone of Dennis McClendon- I think that is what I meant tosay. You will remember that Dennis was the father of Francis McClendon here.

In another place I see where I say the following-

7-9 Charles McClendon b 1808 m Winnie Sawyer and she had a sister Emeline Sawyer who was the mother of Mrs. Allice Sammons of Godfrey, Ga. The Sammons family claimed kin to the McClendon family of Putnam Co., Ga., but in so far as I could see they were in laws- and no real kin. As I remember this Mrs. Allice Sammons of Godfrey, Ga., was the lady who promised to look up the Dennis McClendon tombstone.

I hope you had a pleasant trip back home and with best wishes,

Sincerely, H. H. McClendon

Gentlemen:

Will you kindly check to see if you have a record of the death of Dr. J. H. McLendon, who in LaMar County Census of 1880, lived in Precinct No. 2, which I understand was near Blossom.

Due to the fact that most of the census records in Washington, for 1890, were burned, I am asking you, if by chance you have a record of the death of this party. Would greatly appreciate your sending me a certified copy of it if you do have a record.

Enclosed herewith my check for $2.00, to cover expense, and if more is required, please advise and I will be happy to send additional amount.

Very truly yours,

M. D. Rutherford

Dear Sir:

Our death records for Lamar County begin at 1903, so we do not have any record of the death of Dr. J. H. McLendon..I am returning your check.

Sincerely,

JOHNNY M. STONE, COUNTY CLERK,
LAMAR COUNTY, TEXAS

RE: JOEL McCLENDON

On my recent trip South, I contacted a descendant of my grandmother's sister, also a descendant of Joel McClendon, and have the page of their family bible which shows all of the children of Joel McClendon, and Sarah White.

On them are a J. T. and a Joel. J. T. evidently was away at school and had a family of his own at the time of the census reports which we have. It is not necessary to check further as that mystery has been solved. This is from a letter of June 11, referred to this matter in it.

I will send you the list of these children when I have it copied but I don't think we have to proceed any further along that line as we know now that the doctor, was a member and a son of Joel McClendon, and not from a different branch.

Mrs. Albert Fisher:

RE: JOEL McCLENDON

Sam McClendon, has a record which he says he can not interpret as follows:

JOEL Mc CLENDON, OWENS, JASPER, COUNTY: 179 - 4-5 p 102 Miss Houston's Book.

Sam says he doesn't remember where he got it from but it was from an old manuscript. He was told it may have meant Joel, was living with Owens, or had his check sent there while in the Army.

Does the above mean anything to you? It can only be of importance to us as showing a connection between the McClendon's and Owen's at that point, a connection which was fairly well established or suspected before this.

M. D. Rutherford

RE:"JOEL McCLENDON, Owens, Jasper County 179 -4-5

Yes, I know exactly what this means.

"Miss Houston's book" is the Land Lottery of 1827 of which Miss Martah Lou Houston had a reprint made.

The above means that Joel McClendon in the year 1827 was residing in Owens District of Jasper County Georgia. He drew lot no 179 district 4 of Carroll county. (Note:thaumber 5 is an abbreviation used in this lottery to indicate Carroll county). It is possible that this land lot was cut off into another county. I can determine this only by a search at the Land office in Atlanta.

"Owens District" was so designated because an individual by that name was Captain of that militia district. These captains were responsible for the holding of these land lotteries.

RE: Reverend Jasper Head

The above of Jasper County, Georgia, married Sarah White and Joel McClendon on March 3, 1814.

Note in our old family bible which lists Head, as mother of one name in the bible but does not say which family. Sam McClendon of New Orleans, says he thinks a daughter of Head, married a McClendon. See if it is one of mine. It might be a good line to follow up if we find that there is a connection.

A Head, could have been the mother of Sarah White. Could it be that Rev. Jasper Head, is from the family from whom the County is named? There are several Jasper Counties, in and about the South, and undoubtedly, he was a prominent figure in Colonial or Revolutionary times.

I am enclosing some data which I was able to locate after you wrote me recently re OWEN line. I am sure this is new to you and believe it should prove of much interest; I feel certain that I have found additional data of your McClendon line to which you but recently referred for the first time. I decided to see what might turn up on a possible 1812 pension search; I examined all of this name which they had for any such of the name in Georgia at that time; there were seven pensions. Upon examining all, I found that only the one enclosed, that of Joel and wife Sarah fitted our search, and I think you will agree that these were the parents of your Elizabeth Ann McClendon; note that Joel had a daughter Sarah who in 1870 was still unmarried and living with her mother in her brother's family, the Dr. whom you also mentioned; I judge the "J" stands for Jacob. I did not find him in the 1850 record but perhaps he was away studying to be a doctor. This data also shows that the McClendons came from N.C. where Joel was b. in 1784-85 and that his wife was a WHITE, b. in Ga. I hope to search further, on both of these lines with good luck.

Now in the pension application, note that J.Mc. and Sarah W. were married in Jasper Co., Ga.; I am enclosing a search there for 1830 and 1840 but did not find Joel,Sr. either year although a younger Joel is shown in 1830. My guese is that sometime after 1835(when Joel's dau.Sarah was born in Ga.) the

I have found in the N.C.Colonial State papers some McClendon references and it is interesting to note that the name "Joel" is found. In 1781 Joel McClendon was a Justice of the Peace and was bought to trial, being accused of misusing his office,along with another man; he was acquitted; this was Montgomery Co., N.C. REF. V-17-646-652-655, 733-877-8 The reference is found in Vol. 4 pp ~~854~~ and ~~891~~, we find at a Council Meeting at Newbern, March 24,1747, among the petitions for land warrants, the names of Joel McClendon and Jacob McClendon--they were granted 300 acres each in Bladen Co., not stated where they lived at this time. The name of McClendon is also found in references to Perquimans Co., and Bertie Co.

From the Hist. Collections of the Ga. chapters, D.A.R. I found in Vol.1 pp 35043 an index of wills of Jasper Co., as follows:

1813-1819	Will	Book	C --	Samuel White
1820-1823	"	"	G --	Wiley M'Clendon
1823-1833	"	"	(?)00	Jonathan M'Clendon
				Isaac M'Clendon
				John White
1825-1831	"	"	J--	Francis M'Clendon
1826-1831	"	"	K--	Jacob Owens
1831-1839	"	"	N--	Etherlred M'Clendon
1831-1839	"	"	N--	William H. White

I wish to add that my friend made search on the McClendon line especially but was unable to connect directly to your Joel. In the Sumter Co.,S.C. wills, Book D, Vol.2, p.215, there is a will of a Jacob McLendon in which a son, Joseph, is mentioned--Joseph C.McLendon. In Vol.1, Book AA,p.37, a will of a Lewis McLendon(see my note re the family on other page of this letter--a Lewis is mentioned there.) In the Charleston will,Vol.14A--1771-1774, p.29, Mary McLendon, 1768-- no children. I realize this is S.C. and not N.C. but there was undoubtedly relationship between the families of the two states.

Dear Mrs. Fisher:

I am enclosing my check for $9.50 as per your invoice recently.

Haven't had an opportunity to check over all the information which you have sent me but I am sending you what I picked up down in New Orleans from McClendon recently.

Will you have your researcher look into [redacted] McClendon in Lamar County, Texas, probably at Blossom and also see if they have any record of Woodhouse at that location. The only census that you could start with, would be 1870, try that and also 1880.

My correspondent in New Orleans said that there is a lady there living in the vicinity, he thinks the name was Mrs. Alice Semmons of Godfrey, Ga. The Semmons family claimed kin to the McClendon family of Putnam Co., Georgia. The story is that Francis McClendon (a sister of Joel McClendon) married first Lot Hearn, Hearns were a prominent family in Putnam County, and she marred second John Swanson. They have inter-married and all seem to have settled out in the Old Hearn-McClendon settlement, which was then on the road from Macon, Georgia north to Jasper County. When the Railroad was built through it caused a relocation of the highways and the Old Hearn Settlement was left off the highway but an inquiry from the Court House Officials, I think could tell you where it could be found. When I was at the Court House I was told all about this Old Hearn-McClendon location. I was told about this lady living at Godfrey who was perhaps a relation to the McClendons. Godfrey was on the new highway going north from Edenton Co.

Seat and was living at the crossing at Godfrey and was a lady about my age, that would be about 78 now. She assured me that she had seen this tombstone of Dennis McClendon, though not being interested specially and it was a number of years back, that she did not remember what was on it. She did promise me that she would go down and see it for me and that I would pay her for the trip. She told me that Frances Swanson was buried by the side of Lot Hearn, her first husband in the Hearn Cemetery near Godfrey, Ga. The Francis McClendon home was between the Hearn and Semmons place. There is a McClendon cemetery on the place, which has stones in it. I suppose this has the stone of Dennis McClendon. You will remember that Dennis was the father of Francis McClendon here.

Charles McClendon born 1808 married Winnie Sawyer and she had a sister Emeline Sawyer who was the mother of Mrs. Alice Semmons of Godfrey, Ga.)"

Perhaps this information will give us a clue which could be followed up,

I stopped in Mississippi on my way down to New Orleans the other day and found the grave of the daughter of Dr. E.G. Woodhouse and also the grave of Dr. J.N. McClendon, father of the one who I think moved to Texas.

My mother married my father in Lamar County, as her mother after the death of Dr. Woodhouse in Mississippi in 1878, moved to Texas, in the vicinity of Lamar or Fannin Counties.

You may work on this and see what we can develop.

Yours very truly

J.H. McClendon, Physician

We have the 1870 census on the above and also additional census on him back in Mississippi. Could it be possible that there were J.H. McClendons, both living in the same county at the same time, one of them a Doctor?

On the stones in the cemetery in Mississippi that I looked at last Winter, there was a J.H. and an A.F. (Amelia Frances McClendon) who lost a son in 1853, presumably the doctor. Amelia Frances died December 26, 1861, age 30, which means that she was born about 6-10-31. On the back of the same gravestone, there is the following information:

Eugenia S. McClendon died January 3, 1862,
11 years, 6 mos. 27 days old.

Lugeau M. - died Jan. 7, 1862, age 10 years 11 mos. 18 days.

Walter L. - died Dec. 28, 1861, age 7 years, 6 mos. 11 days

Julia A. - died Jan. 13, 1862, age 5 years, 1 mo.

Re: McClendon

Dear Mrs. Fisher:

Referring to my letter to you of August 5th, regarding the above, I made an error. In the second paragraph I state that there was a stone in the cemetery with J.H. on it. That is not correct. I am advised that the initials were Julia A. McClendon and the date is 1862, probably a small daughter.

Also in my letter of August 5th regarding Lamar County census of 1880, we have that. I was evidently referring to the 1890 census.

RE: V.G. Woodhouse

On my trip through Mississippi, I stopped at Mantee and also at Hohenlinden, Miss. V.G. Woodhouse was formerly Postmaster, I understand, at Hohenlinden and perhaps you can find some record of this in Washington, which might give us some more information on him.

At Mantee, Miss. I got in touch with an old settler who remembers that his father was a personal friend of Dr. Woodhouse, and knew him very well. This was at Mantee some miles away from Hohenlinden, over the hills. I found an old graveyard there where the church had been moved away and no burials for many years, where J.H. McClendon was buried and also a daughter of V.G. and S.G. Woodhouse, my grandfather and grandmother. The baby was 7 months old and was buried in 1962. We were not able to find a monument for Dr. Woodhouse and I believe that his grave will eventually be found in the neighborhood of Hohenlinden. As you will recall that there is a memorial written about him by a member of the Hohenlinden Sabbath School, referring to him as a fellow citizen and teacher in the School.

I am still having local people look this up, but in the meantime perhaps we might get a clue from the above. Also understand that he was a J.P. and you will recall that his signature was on some of the papers for Mrs. McClendon when she applied for pension under the service of Joel McClendon's service in the war of 1812.

Dear Sir:

With reference to your question in the fourth paragraph of your letter regarding McClendon on page 36, that was in the 1860 census and I presume it is correct as it is copied from what you sent me.

I have a Lamar County Census of 1880, Precinct No. 2, page 52 taken June 2, where J.H. McClendon and family are listed. Will you check as soon as possible and advise me as to what town or Postoffice of this precinct was. I am going to be in that country soon and I might have opportunity to check up and see if there are any modern descendents and in that connection, wish you would get the census of 1890 and 1891 on the same man and see if that would give us anything which would help to follow up.

However, that may take some time so send the first part of this request first. Also found in Ward 3, page 222, City of Paris, House 133 family No. 136, Sarah Woodhouse, widow, with a number of children including Ella, who was my mother.

It would seem from the information you sent me that the whole family of Owens and Whites moved from Georgia to Alabama and then to Mississippi. You will recall our search for the father of Lemuel or Samuel Owens, perhaps your Choctaw Co., Miss. 1850 census showing C.C. Owen with a son Lemuel, might be a clue. He is undoubtedly a brother of Lemuel, at least the ages correspond. Perhaps if we could check back on him we might find out something. What do you suggest?

I am enclosing a chart made up on the McClendon family and you will notice at the bottom some of the ones we are interested in on the Owen lines. It may be of help to you in our future correspondence.

I have a Lamar County Census of 1880, Precinct No. 2, page 52 taken June 2, where J.H. McClendon and family are listed. Will you check as soon as possible and advise me as to what town or Posteffice of this precinct was. I am going to be in that country soon and I might have an oppertunity to check up and see if there are any modern descendents, and in that connection, wish you would get the census of 1890 and 1891 on the same man and see if that would give us anything which would help to follow up.

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

Thank you for your recent two letters,and check.

I ordered the photostat and you should have received it by this time;if not,let me know.

The only reference to a J.H. McLendon was a cross reference to a Green S.McLendon who was a Pvt.in Capt. J.C. Dockey's Co.,Blythe's Bn., Mississippi Volunteers--he enlisted at Union City, Tennessee--44th Reg't. On one of the cards with this file was a card reading "J.H. McClendon" which stated he enlisted at Pleasant Hill. On another card with same name,it read "J.L.McClendon". I have no idea as to why such cards are with a file of Green S.McLendon.

Dear Adjutant Rutherford:

Your letter of May 4 arrived while I was on a short tour of active duty at Fort Bliss, Texas. That accounts for the delay in answering you.

The West Point camp has fallen by the wayside. The camps in that area are Columbus, Amory, Macon, and Starkville. The latter is nearest, but is made up principally of students at Mississippi State College.

I am sending a copy of this letter to Dr. James H. McLendon, Department of History and Government, Mississippi State College, State College, Miss., and to William M. Ellis, Jr., Commander, William Barksdale Camp No. 1220, Box 87, Columbus, Miss., with the hope that they may interest their camps in this matter.

Please be assured that I wish to do everything possible to help.

Yours sincerely,

William D. McCain

Dear Dr. McLendon:

I am a descendant of a McLendon, including a Joel and Dr. J. H. McLendon, and other McLendon's who lived in the vicenity of Hohenlinden, Mississippi.

I have been trying to separate the various McLendon's for my genealogical records and have been having a little difficulty. Your name was given to me by William D. McCain, Adjutant of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and I would appreciate the opportunity to correspond with you regarding this matter.

I am enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope for your convenience in replying. If you will favor me with an answer I will be happy to give you additional information as to just what I need. I have a couple of missing links that I would like to fill in.

I might say, incidentally, that my grandfather, Dr. V. G. Woodhouse, is buried near Hohenlinden, Mississippi, in an unmarked grave which I have had a great deal of difficulty in locating. Now have several local residents all over 85 years old who would be willing to make an affadavit that they know this grave, as it was shown to them by their fathers. It is my plan, that if I can secure these affadavits, that I will forward them to the department at Washington, that handles the grave stones for Confederate and other veterans, and secure a Confederate grave stone, which I would then install over his grave. I wrote to Adjutant William D. McCain, and asked him for the name of a Confederate Veterans Post near there and he gave me your name. I thought that possibly, if I am able to put this thing over, that the local post may be interested in having some sort of a ceremony. If not, I will do it on my own.

Wish to assure you that I would appreciate any help that you could give me in this matter. I remain

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Rutherford;

I am enclosing the names of some of the McClendons, who received Royal land grants.

BRYANT Bryant McClendon had a Royal land grant from the Crown, of 100 acres and filed at Charleston, S. C. This grant in Vol.22, p 509 and located in Craven Co., S. C. 20 day of Jan. 1771. On head of 25 mile Creek of the Wateree.

DENNIS DennisMcClendon received a Royal Grant for 200 acres survey 1770, situated in Craven Co., S. C. and on Camp Branch on S. W. side of Lynches Creek in 1771

Dennis McClendon Vol. 32 page 358 records at Charleston, S. C 19 day Aug. 1774 received a Royal land grant for 300 acres in Craven Co., N. C. on the N. side of Great road, leading to George town, bounde on S. XXXXX.N. W. and N. E. by said McClendons land and on S. W. by Mixons L

WM There was a Wm. McClendon, who received a Royal land Grant about this time but I can not locate it at present As I remember Wm was the son of Dennis above.

DENNIS Dennis the above was arrested as a Tory, but I never see n where anything was done about it. They certainly did not take his property

" Dennis 3rd of Anson Co., N. C. is reported to have given the American authorities a great deal of Trouble. But was never arrested.

JOEL +Joel McClendon perhaps b about 1700 granted land 1722 XXXXX He was a Justice in Montgomery Co., N. C 1788 but was not in 1790 census and I do not know what became of him unless he came to Ga. No record of death or of resigning his office I have thought he may have gone back to Englnd

" +This Joel McClendon of Montgomery Co., N. C. had a son Jesse and he wasa Justice of Peace, resigned his commission Nov. 24, 1788, it received, accepted and sent to the House of Commons. Vol. XX page 541, N. C Records.

DENNIS Dennis McClendon, 2nd was a Justice of Peace when he died 1725

Sincerely, D McClendon

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

I thank you for yours of the 14th with check for $16.00 to cover a day's work -- together with various data in connection with your McLendon-Owen(s)White, etc lines. You mention having included printed items which I do not find. I take it that you refer to typed items.

I understand that you have your Owen line documented to Sarah Gertrude Owen(II), your White line to Sarah White(47)and your McLendon(McClendon) line to Francis McClendon, and that you wish me to extend these several lineages(or to start on the job) if it can be accomplished through the records.

I tried to get started on this through my office records, but in the case of the Whites, for instance, there are so many Sarah Whites that I find my self up against it at the very outset with that line.
I have from 25 to 50 pages of White data, but can not find one who married Joel McLendon. Likewise in my McLendon file I have a number of Joels but none who married Sarah White!

I wish you could have filled in my lineage work sheet with the children of Eliz. Ann McLendon and those of Joel McClendon and Sarah White, because the names of children are often the deciding factor in the case of arriving at a conclusion from two alternatives. However, it appears that you have arrived at your conclusions from census reports, and and perhaps the names of the children were not available.

I wish I had some way of localizing the search in these several problems -- that is to say, some idea of the county or even the district. Both the Whites and the McLendons were just "all over the lot."

Here, for instance is one illustration: from my SAR files, I have from one of our McLendon applications -- Joel McLendon,(b. May 17, 1779,) and Susannah Ma,(b. July 16, 1777) were m. July 2, 1809. It is not stated where this Joel lived but I think it was Anson County. I can find out without trouble however. If I remember correctly there are two other Joels -- all contamporaries. Very much the same thing with the Whites, etc Therefore, if you can help me localize this search it will be a great help. Otherwise I shall have tc proceed by the method of elimination and that is a long, hard and expensive road to travel.
At all events, I shall do the best I can.

Yours very truly, W H Bason

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

Thank you for your letter of the 14th.

It appears that you have misunderstood my letter of the 8th accompanying my report, which was "the result of my search in your White-McClendon problem." I then went on to explain the difficulty of using the microfilm machine continuously, which in part explained the delay in getting my report to you.

The difficulty in this problem is in localizing the search, as I have attempted to explain. Where we have a repetition of contemporary names appearing in different localities there is no way to work it out except through a process of elimination, and unless I have your reaction resulting from a study of the data I have sent you, I am at a disadvantage in my effort to help you.

I am herewith returning the records you have sent me. If, after having made a study of my report, and you feel that you wish me to extend the search, you can return such data as you feel would be helpful in the circumstances, along with your check to cover such time as you wish me to put on your problem.

I hope you will have a happy holiday season.

Sincerely yours,

W. H. Bason

P.S. -

Dennis McClendon does not appear in the North Carolina D.A.R. Roster as a Revolutionary soldier, nor does her appear as such in the N.C. State records, nor the N.C. Colonial records as a Colonial soldier.

He appears in the N.C. State Records, vol 18, pp 474-475, Hillsboro District in 1785 as a petitioner. Also a Dennis McClenden appears in the N.C. Colonial Records, vol 4, p. 805 as having been granted land in Craven County which is in the extreme eastern part of the state. (1746)
I can not identify these two as having been the same man.
The only additional time I can give to this is to search the N.C. Revolutionary Accounts in the Archives, and the "Military Papers" which I shall do, and write you the result.

Dear Mr. Bason:

I have not had an opportunity to study your recent report. However, I would not expect you to find the marriage bond in Tennessee, whereas the Affidavit for Pensions would indicate that they were married in Jasper County, Georgia.

It would seem as though the McClendons lived in North Carolina, probably adjacent to the Whites, and that the Whites migrated to Georgia and were followed later by the McClendons or at least part of them, although you will note that Joel, in the census of 1860, when he was 75 years old, stated he was born in North Carolina. It is possible, of course, that our Whites came from South Carolina, but I doubt it.

I am enclosing a sheet of reference to Colonial Records of North Carolina, which might be of help.

I am, of course, also searching for information which will permit me to use Joel's father, Dennis McClendon, as a Revolutionary War ancestor.

You referred to lack of information regarding the children of Joel and Sarah. The only information I have is from a relative who got the information from bible records that Elizabeth Ann had a sister Sarah England and a brother Jake who was a doctor. You will recall the census reports showed this name in Mississippi. Perhaps a brief check on England might bring results.

Will you kindly return all of the records which I have sent to you from time to time to me when they have served your purpose.

Kindly expedite this as much as possible, as I expect to leave the first part of January for about a month, on a trip to Hawaii.

Yours very truly,

Joseph, a Rev.War soldier, and also 1812.

Wife Olive was daughter of William Blake and widow Lucy (Allen)Mobley.

W.B. was also Rev.War soldier, moving from near Raleigh, N.C. to lands granted for service in Walker (now Gilbert) Co., Ga.

Joseph McClendon's father was Thomas (also Rev.War soldier), b. Edinburgh, Scotland, d. Henry Co., Ga. - his wife was Sarah Cooper d. Roanoke, Ala. aged 92, whose father (name not given) moved from Virginia to Green and Jasper counties, Ga.

Thomas' father with two brothers came to America by way of Ireland, settling in N.C. but one of them, Lewis,left there and is thought to have settled in S.C. Two of Thomas' brothers, Jacob and Isaac, also in Rev.War - Thomas was wounded in war.

At Jacob's house in Wilkes Co., N.C., the 1st court was held (for the Co.) Aug.25, 1779.

The Blakes were of Welsh descent.

The McClendons are of pure Scotch ancestry of the Macaunean, Scal Thinean Clan of Rosshire, name transformed into McClenion and Maclennion - original was MacChilenemain. They were usually enrolled among the Frager and

Dear Sir:

Your letter of December 18th, to hand, anent the McLendone (or McClendone). From my limited information at hand I am unprepared to say whether McLendon and McClendon and McClelland are one and same name or not I have some records on each one. They don't claim kin.

I find the following McClendons in Knight's Roster of the Revolution giving Rev. soldiers in Georgia: On page 119, Jacob McClendon and Samuel McClendon, and on page 122 Isaac McClendon; and on page 269, Isaac McLendon. In the History of Laurens County Georgia, page 21, it is stated that Dennis McLendon received a bounty land grant for Rev. services and was one of the first settlers of that county. I don't know anything at present about the family of the latter other than I am very sure he is the ancester of the McLendons who once lived in this county. Dennie McLendon of Laurens County (apparently another Dennie from the one who was Rev. soldier) was the father of Isaac Tyson McLendon, 1835-1901, of Clinch county. Dennis McLendon married Martha Tison, born 1803. I have the names of ten children of Dennis and Martha; six of them lived and died in Laurens County. In Montgomery county I found the record of the appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth McClendon as Guardian of William and Dennie McLendon (over age of 14 years) and of Lewis McLendon under age of 14, January 7th, 1811. As Montgomery and Laurens adjoined in those days I would say that the McLendons must have first lived in Montgomery since it was an older county than Laurens.

I have these scattering items: Burrell McLendon was married in Laurens County July 23, 1816, to Fairiby Joiner. He appears as Justice of Peace, 58th District of Montgomery county, commissioned Feb. 27, 1808. Ephriam McLendon appears on the 1805-6 tax digest of Montgomery County. Nancy McLendon married Wm. Young in Laurens County March 28, 1815. The 1850 Census of Telfair County and the 1860 Census of Coffee county, lists Benjamin McLendon, born 1788 in N.C. and his wife Mary Ann, born 1786, S.C. A son, Joshua L. born 1827 in Emanuel County, was living with them. Needham McLendon, another son, born 1818, married March 24, 1845, in Montgomery County, to Harriet Sears. He died August 31, 1861, a resident of Coffee County. I find a Needham McLendon commissioned lieutenant of the militia in the 52nd district of Emanuel County July 5, 1810.

I have some other records but they are later than the above and probably wouldn't interest you. I think you will find that the McLendons of Mississippi are those who went from Laurens Co. Ga. about 1810-1820 or perhaps later. Would be glad to hear from you further.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

Our letters crossed. I received yours written February 26 just after I posted mine written this A.M.

I shall be happy to send you all the McClendon data (and the Owen also) which I abstracted in Putnam county. I abstracted every will, administration and marriage record in both names in the county. Perhaps you and Mr. Samuel McC. can find something more in these records than I. Dennis' marriage is there, also the administration of his estate of which Lot Hearn is the administrator. There are also deeds of Dennis and Joel et al.
Owen
I abstracted all the Owen wills, marriages deeds etc. too.

If you want these just say the word.

Sincerely,
Ann Fisher

P.S. Have ordered Lamar co. Texas 1870, 1880 census

Mr. M. Drexel Rutherford

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

I am enclosing the results of the Jasper county search on the McClendon family. I was pleased to find the administration on the estate of Francis and Joel. As you see Joel's wife Mary married again and became the wife of John Hale (Hail)

Francis's wife's name is spelled three or four ways but I feel sure that her real name was Judith, and she was called Judy .

I am a bit surprised that the administration on the estates of Francis and Joel are only twelve years apart. I had thought there would be a longer lapse of time between. Joel live?

Only one heir of Francis is mentioned, i.e. Clark. There may have been others who were older.

Francis gives us no clues in his deeds as to where he came from.

Isaac obligingly says he is "of Greene co."

I thought it best to abstract all early deeds* in the McClendon name since deeds so often give relationships.

I went into Atlanta to make a search at the Department of Archives, but it was closed and will be closed again Monday. I shall send data on Land lotteries as soon as this department is open.

You are right Mr. McC.'s. data is scrambled. It is perplexing to discriminate between fact and tradition. I much prefer documentary evidence, and I believe you do also especially if you publish. A history of the family properly documented would be a great contribution.

I believe that only a careful search of the Dublin co. North Carolina records would determine whether or not the Dennis found there is yours.

Sincerely,

Ann Fisher

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

Enclosed are two deeds which I found in Montgomery county Georgia while searching for another client. Since they are early and the first I have found this early on Joel McClendon, I am forwarding them to you and also to Mrs. McCroskey.

She has recently found Joel McClendon (probably son of the above) in ~~the~~ Appling county in 1827. I am checking to see about the condition of Appling county records. I am afraid some have been destroyed.

The county officials of Russell county Alabama state that the names we are seeking do not appear on their records. This, of course, does not mean that a thorough search was made. His reply shows that only the index to wills was checked. No effort was made to locate an administration or a settlement.

I trust that you are having a pleasant trip.

Sincerely yours,

Ann Fisher

P.S. I am writing Mrs. McCroskey suggesting a search of Montgomery, Tatnall, Telfair and Appling (if records are extant) counties. Perhaps you and she would want to share expenses.

I did not have time to search probate records of Montgomery. Answers, they are meager. 95

Subject - McClendon

Dear Mrs. Fisher:

I ran across a book which is entitled General Roster of the Revolution, published by Knight in 1920 and the heading Georgia Soldiers of the Line, page 386, are listed Isaac McClendon, Isaac, Sr., Jacob, Joseph and Simeon. No doubt we have run across these names before in this connection and I am just giving them to you for possible checking on your part.

Incidently, I notice that in many of these land grants, the exact amount of the grant was 287 acres and one-half and I am just wondering if that had any particular significance. Would that mean that they had a definite rank in the Revolutionary Forces as evidenced by this odd grant? I know that in some cases a General received 8000 acres and persons of lesser ranks, varying amounts. In other words, would the fact that they had a grant of this amount be any proof as to their military record?

Yours very truly,

M. D. Rutherford

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

I hope you will excuse me in getting this book to you. However, I thought you might be interested in the early records of the McClendon families. For the correction of this data, I do not vouch. I am giving it to you as it has been given to me. Some of course copied from books in congression library and was headed McLennon,etc. in no case has the name of McClendon been used.

I have given you what I think to be your McClendon ancestry from the time they came to N.C. 1696 until the present. From the Will of Dennis McClendon, 2nd of Bertie Co., N.C. 1725, he did have a son John McLendon and he was bequeathed a plantation. The location of plantation was not given nor have I found out what became of this plantation. I suspect it might have been in Chowan Co., N.C. When Chowan was divided as it probably was this plantation may have been cut off in Craven or some other county I do know I saw some place in the Colonial Records the name of John McClendon and his wife Mary. At that time I suspect this was the only John McClendon in N.C. I suspect that Mary who left her will in Charleston naming her 4 children Lewis, Dennis, Jesse and Simon was the widow of John McClendon- No proof of this though. This is the only break in your line. Now Lewis, her son bought land in Johnson Co., 1751, I think it was. Lewis bought this land when about grown and was born about 1730. This would all indicate that John and his wife Mary lived most of their life between Bertie Co., N.C. and Johnson Co. N.C. and the adjoining counties. Then she left Lewis and Jesse or Lewis and Dennis - slaves and real estate. It doesnot state where this real estate was located. If the county records in which this real estate is located, has not been burned, it would probably be in the name of the husband of Mary McClendon and I believe this would be John. Then the son of Mary, Dennis was in Orangeburg Dist. of S.C. 1776, I believe, when he sold his cattle and farm implements and this was about the date that Mary made her Will. These events were so close together that it looked to me that they were dependent upon one another in some way. So it may be that John and Mary were perhaps the first McClendons who settled in Orangeburg Dist. S.C. The old Orangeburg Dist. records were burned. But Dennis McClendon was in Barnwell later which has been cut from Orangeburg Dist.

Your letter was received today in reference to early McClendons and their associates, for which I wish to thank you. I hope to get your book off in a day or two - perhaps tomorrow.

Sincerely

Signed/ S.F. McClendon

Mr. S. E. McClendon,
2536 Nashville Ave.
New Orleans, 15, La.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of December 18th, to hand, anent the McLendone (or McClendons). From my limited information at hand I am unprepared to say whether McLendon and McClendon and McClelland are one and same name or not I have some records on each one. They don't claim kin.

I find the following McClendons in Knight's Roster of the Revolution giving Rev. soldiers in Georgia: On page 119, Jacob McClendon and Samuel McClendon, and on page 122 Isaac McClendon; and on page 269, Isaac McLendon. In the History of Laurene County Georgia, page 21, it is stated that Dennis McLendon received a bounty land grant for Rev. services and was one of the first settlers of that county. I don't know anything at present about the family of the latter other than I am very sure he is the ancester of the McLendons who once lived in this county. Dennis McLendon of Laurens County (apparently another Dennis from the one who was Rev. soldier) was the father of Isaac Tyeon McLendon, 1835-1901, of Clinch county. Dennis McLendon married Martha Tison, born 1803. I have the names of ten children of Dennis and Martha; six of them lived and died in Laurene County. In Montgomery county I found the record of the appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth McClendon as Guardian of William and Dennis McLendon (over age of 14 years) and of Lewis McLendon under age of 14, January 7th, 1811. As Montgomery and Laurene adjoined in those days I would say that the McLendons must have first lived in Montgomery since it was an older county than Laurens.

I have these scattering items: Burrell McLendon was married in Laurens County July 23, 1816, to Fairiby Joiner. He appears as Justice of Peace, 58th District of Montgomery county, commissioned Feb. 27, 1808. Ephriam McLendon appears on the 1805-6 tax digest of Montgomery County. Nancy McLendon married Wm. Young in Laurene County March 25, 1813. The 1850 Census of Telfair County and the 1860 Census of Coffee county, lists Benjamin McLendon, born 1788 in N.C. and his wife Mary Ann, born 1786, S.C. A son, Joshua L. born 1827 in Emanuel County, was living with them. Needham McLendon, another son, born 1818, married March 24, 1845, in Montgomery County, to Harriet Sears. He died August 31, 1861, a resident of Coffee County. I find a Needham McLendon commissioned lieutenant of the militia in the 52nd district of Emanuel County July 5, 1810.

I have some other records but they are later than the above and probably wouldn't interest you. I think you will find that the McLendons of Mississippi are those who went from Laurens Co. Ga. about 1810-1820 or perhaps later. Would be glad to hear from you further.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) Folks Huxford

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

I sent the data in compliance with your letter instructing me to search the records of Coweta County Georgia. In case you wish to refer to your files this letter bears date of Sept. 13. Thank you kindly for your check received today.

My reason for assuming that Sarah McClendon was not yours was because the name of her husband Joel did not appear anywhere on these old church minutes. Neither did he appear on the church roll. This, of course is not proof, and if I am wrong I shall be delighted to admit my mistake.

If they continued to live in the county the 1830 census should prove this point. I shall search it. He was born 1785; she 1795.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

The Adjutant General's office turned over many years ago all the Georgia Militia records, and early military papers, to this Department. They are by no means complete. Many Militia records did not survive the War Between the States. I am not able to locate your JOEL McClendon as 1st Sergt. in Capt. Cyrus White's Company, etc. The War Department in Washington has much more complete records for the War of 1812 period than we do. The pension application is not in the Georgia files, but in the Pension Bureau in Washington, D. C. I suggest you contact the U.S.War Department and Pension Bureau for a certified copy of the JOEL McCLENDON record.

Regretting we are not able to help you,

Adjutant General,
State of Georgia,
Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

I would like to have, if possible, a certified copy of the military record of Joel McClendon, who served in Capt. Cyrus White's Co., Col. E. Wimberly's Reg. 4, Brig.-Gen. David Blackshers Brigade at Montecello, Jasper Co., Ga., October 1814; hon. discharge at Darian, Ga., March 1815. That he was 1st Sergt. of company.

I understand, that a pension application was made on this, #W.O.6926 and W.C. 5442.

He was mustered in at Camp Hope, Ga. Had previously received warrant for 40 acres of public land in the district of lands subject to entry in the Columbus District --- Witnesses: Alfred Forester and John Hightower. (Warrant No. 16387 issued Aug. 26, 1851). Auditor's office slip refers to him as Joel T. McClendon (note: this slip might belong with record of another man, Joel T. McClendon, also in the War).

With reference to this last sentence, regarding the Auditor's slip, if it is possible for you to clear up whether this slip applies to this Joel McClendon, it would be of service to me.

Attention: Director

Dear Sir:

Sometime ago you gave the information regarding my grandfather, Virginius G. Woodhouse, was a member of the 24th Mississippi Infantry, Confederate States Army, CSA. Living in the same vicinity were other relatives of mine in the vicinity of North eastern Mississippi and near the present counties of Chickasaw, Chocktaw, Webster and Clay. One of these was another doctor whose initials are J. H. McClendon.

I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding him as he is undoubtly a member of the Confederate Army also. I am particularly interested in what the initials stand for. It may have been Joel or Jacob and the proper identification of this man is important as I am trying to get sufficient information together of both he and Dr. Woodhouse to ask the Adjutant General at Washington for a Confederate Soldier's monument to put over their graves.

Also, perhaps you can find some information on a Dr. Owen in the same locality who is also a relative. I find that in the military history of Mississippi that Dr. Woodhouse is mentioned but as I do not have a copy of it I am unable to tell whether the above were also mentioned in that volume. I am attaching a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

In compliance with your request of September 30, we have made a careful search through the Official Confederate Military Records on file in this Department for the service record of J. H. (Joel or Jacob) McClendon.

We found the following information which may be of interest to you:

Joel McClendon, Private, Company F, Eighth Regiment of Mississippi Cavalry, CSA. Company F was from Lowndes County.

You stated that this man was from northeast Mississippi near the present counties of Chickasaw, Choctaw, Webster and Clay. Clay County was formed in 1871 from Lowndes and Chickasaw counties.

Whenever this Department can be of further service to you, please do not fail to call upon us.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Fisher:

Subject: John McClendon

When we started out on the quest of the above, I was merely trying to determine if one of them was an ancestor whom I could use in an application to the Sons of the Revolution, that is if he was a Military man. I don't know if we have been able to prove this or not.

I will review the subject with you and am sending you a number of sheets of comments and other things which I would like to have you look over and see what you can find out. These are numbered from 1 to 9.

First is a chart which is the way we figure the family was arranged. Check it over and see if you agree with this. If you do, our Dennis must have been the one who married Elizabeth Maxwell, and had the sons mentioned in the Will of his sister on one of the reports given you.

You will note that on sheet 2, it refers to Dennis McClendon receiving a grant which would be a Secretary of States office grant for Revolutionary War service. I might say that I also have a letter from that Department stating that there was such a grant of 287 acres to Dennis McClendon and was a Revolutionary Service grant. However, on the bottom of that same letter, Mr. McClendon wrote that he believed that this Dennis was a son of Jacob, whereas in his other reports he is convinced that the Dennis was my Dennis.

If you can find anything to indicate that the Jacob he refers to had a Dennis who might be this individual, it would at least be a negative advantage. Anyhow, what have we got to lose? Look them over and see what your opinion would be, if you were a Registrar trying to pass on this man's record.

Yours very truly

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

Glad to hear from you and to know that you had such a fine trip.

During your absence I encountered a colony of McClendons in JONES COUNTY, GEORGIA of whom I had not previously known. Some members of the family are there as early as 1810, possibly earlier. I believe that Dennis appears later.

I was working for someone else and as the officials there close an hour earlier than in most courthouses, I did not have time to really go into the matter. I do wish that I might have done so.

I believe that you will want the records of this county searched, and unless I hear from you to the contrary I shall proceed to do so in the near future.

About the time of your departure I obtained by a dlidgent search, some deeds recorded very early - ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ 1797 to be exact- in one of the south Georgia counties. I believe I sent you copies. Both are signed by Joel. If I did not give you a copy,please let me know and I shall send them on.

The similiarity of names certainly indicate that the Anson county family were the progenitors of the Georgia line.

Sincerely yours,

Ann Fisher

Dear Mr. Rutherford,

Herewith is a report of the findings on the McClendon Family in Jones county Georgia.

As you see by the deeds, Joel in 1807 was living in Baldwin county. He was cut off into Jones county when it was formed.

Some of the younger members of the family move into the later counties of Lee and Butts during the 1820's.

A complete study of this interesting family in Georgia would be most worth while. In order to do this I believe we should search the records of each county in which we find the McClendons listed in the EARLY TAX LISTS OF GEORGIA by Miss Ruth Blair and also each county in which they are to be found in the 1803 Land Lottery Lists. In case you do not have the McClendons listed in these two early sources, I shall be glad to send them. Seems to me that is the best way to capture your Dennis.

Sincerely yours,

Ann Fisher

Mr. M. D. Rutherford,
Chicago.

Dear Sir;

I was glad to get your letter and have given you the early ancesters in America. My line and yours are probably hung up on the children of Thomas McClendon who we think died about 1748-55 we think in Johnson Co., N. C. My ancestor was Jacob and is complete with the exception of who was the father of Jacob McClendon. Of course I believe it was Thomas, but do not have the proof. Joel McClendon, sr and Joel Jr., were very closely associated with Ja & Jacob McClendon in N. C. then Joel Jr., came to Wilkes Co., Ga., where Jacob was located .

Joel McClendon was a family name and there are many of them coming down the line. I do not have in so far as I know a Elizabeth Ann McClendon but do have an Elizabeth Jane McClendon but do not know who she married. There are as I remember a number of Owens who have married into the family, mostly in Ga. but I do not remember an Augustus Owens.

I would be glad to have your line complete giving names of families who they married and when and where, with brothers, sisters and mothers, Fathers grand mothers and fathers as far back as you knoe them. Sometimes just a name or date is just what you need to connect the missing link I will be glad to help you work out your line. If you know the home state of your Joel McClendon it will be a big help in locating him. There seemed to be three and may be four Joel McClendons in Ga. between 1760 and 1800 in Ga. and may be more.

I have a Joel McLendon b in N. C. 1785. lived in Wilkinson Co., Ga. and Putnam Co., Ga. son of Francis McClendon, moved to Chickashaw Co., Miss. His wife was Sarah b Ga. 1794 From 1850 census we have his children as Joel M. age 25, Ga., Moses T. age 20, Sarah A age 18 b Ga., Syntha M. age 15 b Ga. This Joel would seem about your age.

As I remember there was not a Joel McClendon in either N. C. or S. C. for the 1790 and 1880 census. At that time all the Joels had probably moved down to Ga., Ala. or some other Southern state.

If Mr. Smith sent you some Census reports of the McClendons, I would be glad to have copies of them if you have time to make the copies.

Hoping to hear from you, soon,

Sincerely,
S. E. McClendon.

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

I have looked over carefully over your letters and do not yet know that Joel McClendon of Chickasaw Co., Miss . was your ancestor. If you have definately decied that he is your ancestor, then I think I can give you the line back to 1696, when the Macklendons(McClendons) came to America. These were probably the first settlers in America,. At this time Dennis Macklendon(McClendon asked for land grants for bringing his wife, Elizabeth and sons, Viz; Brient, Thomas, Dennis 2nd, and Francis into the province of N. C. Joel sems to be a family name and especially in the line of Jacob McClendon, who I think was the son of Thomas, tho have not been able to prove it..

I note you have a lot of random XXXXX and uncomble notes on the McClendon family. Some is correct and some varies from fairly correct to wholy incomplete. The Joel McClendons of Jaspe Co., Ga and adjoining counties are decendants of Jacob McClendon, which is my line. Old Joel of N. C. was probably a brother of Jacob.

You will see on your 2nd page you mention the will of Mary McClendon of Charlrlston, S. C. 1768, if the party had just looked up this will they would have found the names of her 4 sons. She leaves her property to sons, Lewis Lewis, Dennis, Jesse and Simon. We do not know definately who was the husband of Mary, but from Colonial Records of N. C. there was a John McClendon and wife Mary in Bertie Co, N. C. Dennis 2nd died in Bertie Co., 1725, naming his children, Dennis 3rd, John , Mary and Elizabeth. This John I think was the wife of Mary, and he perhaps died in Darlington CO. N. C. , Leaving a will which was lost when the records of Darlington Co., were burned. This John was the son of Dennis, 2nd, son of Dennis ,1st who came over 1696By the way if you are a decendant of Joel McClendon of Miss. as suggested above, then your line is about as follows, Joel was from Putnum Co., Ga. to Miss., His father was Francis McClendon who married Frances and lived and died in Putnum Co., Ga. Both Joel and Francis were born in N. C. Francis father was Dennis and wife who was Elizabeth Maxwell of N. C. I think Dennis was a Rev. Soldier but this has not been proved He was a Rev. Sol., but I do not know that our proof would be acceptable. Now I believe this Dennis was the son of Mary, who left a will in Charleston, S? C. If this is correct, then it would be your line back to pernaps about 1650 when Dennis 1st was born in Scotland.

I am just employing a genealogist of N. C. to see if these doubtful connections can be certified by records. I have devoted a lot of time and considerable money in tracing these lines and I feel they are correct tho in two cases in the above line I do not have the proof. I can not prove that the Mary McClendon in Charleston was the widow of John of Bertie Co., tho I believe she was. I can not prove that Dennis who married Elizabeth Maxwell of N. C. was the son of Mary, tho I believe he was.

If the above Joel McClendon is your line, then I will be glad to fillyou out a chart of the family from Dennis 1st to Joel of Putnam Co., Ga. Then I would be glad that you give me your line complete back to Joel and I will add it to chart when I fill it out.

Sincerely, J. D. McClendon

Mr. M. D. Rutherford;
Chicago.

Dear Sir;

Your letter of 2?, inst. , has been received and data related to same has been carefully checked. I no case in the data you have sent me does it say that Joel McClendon was from Jasper Co., Ga. It states that Joel McClendon married Sarah White in Jasper Co., which is correct. The Rev. Mr. Head was of Jasper Co., also. He has figured in the McClendon family before and if I remember correctly one of the McClendons married a daughter of his.

In my records I have Joel McClendon married Sally White 1814 of Jasper Co., Ga Back in those days Sally and Sarah, in many cases was used interchangeably. My gr grand mother was married as Sally and always signed her name as Sarah. I have seen a number of cases where this took place. Your records do not show the date of the marriage I have another record, that I hardly know how to interpret to you. It is this- Joel McClendon, Owens, Jasper Co., 1?-4-5 p 102. Miss Houstons book. I copied this from an old manuscript- I do not remember where- and asked what it meant. As I remember was told that when Joel was at war that his check was to be sent to Owens or that he was living with the Owens. Or it was something to this effect.

Joel McClendon could have lived any place and have married in Jasper Co. Ga. That is the custom today that you marry a girl at her home and not at the home of the groom.

In the will of Frances Swanson of Putnam Co., Ga. She gives share and share alike to Joel McClendon, Jacob McClendon, Charlie McClendon. Lewis McClendon James Jackson McClendon, and Asa Hearn, 4 of my brothers and two nephews. James Jackson McClendon and Asa Hearn were her nephews the others brothers. Frances Swanson states that Joel McClendon her brother is of Chickasaw Co., Miss Frances McClendon Swanson was the daughter of Francis McClendon and his wife Frances. Francis McClendon was the son of Dennis, who was a Rev. Soldier. Joel McClendon I think spent most of his early years in Wilkinson Co., Ga. and the early records of this county were burned .

I have personally examined all the early records of these early counties of Ga. and I think there is very little I have not got in so far as the McClendons are concerned. The Joel McClendon of Jasper Co., were sons and gr sons of Jacob McClendon, Jr., and all were born in Ga. None married Sally White. Jacob McClendon, Jr., was a brother of my great grand father.

So , if Joel McClendon of Chickasaw Co., Miss. is the father of Elizabeth who married Owens, then certainly this is your line. In the 1850 census of Joel McClendon of Chickasaw Co., Miss . Joel L. McClendon age 25, b Ga., is the oldest child given here. Elizabeth must have been older than Joel L. ? Where did Elizabeth marry Owens Sarah McClendon wife of Joel died Apr. 3?,1874 in Miss.

There was a Capt. Joel McClendon of Meriwether Co., Ga., had land and was by Francis McClendon

I not Mrs. Elizabeth Owen in application for pention indicated their residence was in Jasper Co. as a matter of fact Joel was married in 1814. Then did Elizabeth ask for this land grant? I still think that Joel McClendon of Chickasaw Co., Miss. is the father of Elizabeth Owens.

Sincerely, J. D. McClendon

Dear Mr. Rutherford;

I wrote you some time ago, asking I would hear from you before this. However, in looking over my notes I see where Elizabeth A McClendon married Lemuel A. Owens 1838 in Harris Co., Ga. I suppose this was your Elizabeth McClendon.

I am enclosing a chart of Joel McClendon as taken from the census, including 1860 census of Chickasaw Co., Miss. Would you mind completing this chart down to the present including yourself and family and returning one of th copies for my files..

Dec. 13, 1948

Dear Mr. Rutherford;

Your letter with enclosed Charts has been received. I have filled in the charts, as I suppose they should be, the I am not sure.

I will give you what I have and believe Dennis McClendon was a Rev. Soldier. But proving it to the satisfaction of the D. A. R. is another thing. Here is what I have- Dennis McClendon of N. C. married Elizabeth Maxwell and came to Ga. from N. C. Dennis had sons Francis and Josiah, from the will of Elizabeth Maxwell McClendon of Jones Co., Ga. of 1815 and Dennis was Adm. of her estate. We get the names of the children from this will.

Dennis McClendon was granted land in Washington, Co., Ga 1784. All Records of Washington Co., were burned later.

Dennis McClendon had a son Josiah, who was a Rev. Soldier from N. C. tho nothing more than a boy at the time.

For Josiah McClendons service see Acc't and receipt books of N. C. p 174

Josiah McClendon Army accounts for N. C. Vol. 1, p 70, Folio 4, list of certificated for Wilmington Dist. book 139, B 19 p 6

In Jefferson Co., Ga we have the following;
Dennis McClendel(McClendon)1803, Reids Dist.
Josiah McClendel(McClendon) 1803 , Reids Dist a son of Dennis Martin McCledeh(McClendon) RIeids Dist. , a son of Dennis.

These records is in an old book that was saved when the Court House burned by Shermans Army.

Washington Co., Ga., was divided into Jefferson and other counties. Dennis was probably in the part that was previously in Washington Co., Ga

6-2 Josiah McClendon a sonof Dennis McClendon was a Rev. Soldier from N. C.
7-1 George Granberry McClendon was a son of Josiah and a grand son of Dennis.
9-1 Johnathan D. McClendon the son of George Granberry McClendon when on his death bed handed to his daughter a slip of paper saying " This may be of service to you at some time" On this slip of paper was written his ancestry as follows: George Granberry son of Josiah. JOsiah a Rev. Soldier. Josiah the son of Dennis of N. C. Dennis McClendon a Rev. Soldier.

DennisMcClendon was an early settler of Laurens Co., Ga. by Knights Land Marks of Ga. Laurens Co., Ga was established 1807 and theonly Dennis McClendon I know of was the son of Reason(R. W.) and this Dennis was a Minor about 1820 I understand that in Knights Land Marks that he says this Dennis McClendon was a Rev. Soldier. So there is some trouble in placing this Dennis McClendon Thisland grant above was probably for Rev. Services. You might write the Dept. of Archives and History of Raleigh, N. C. and see if hey have anything on Dennis as a Rev. Soldier. Sincerely,

2536 Nashville Ave.,

New Orleans 15, La.

March16, 1949

Dear Mr. Rutherford;

I believe I have sent you the data I have that might lead to the proof that Dennis McClendon was a Rev. Soldier. I am enclosing the letter from the State Dept. at Atlanta, but I believe I did get that land grant at the State House when searching the records some 25 years ago. At that time I was looking only for my immediate family- so did not take the book , page etc., as I should have done. I find it in my old notes, and knew I did not make it up. But cant say definately where I got it.

Dennis was in Jefferson Co., Ga abt 1803 and I am satisfied he was granted land in Washington Co.,1784. When Washington Co., was divided he was probably in the part cut off in Jefferson Co. Do you have any one in view to apply for admission in the D. A. R. ? if so then they might apply for membership and give the records we have and let them judge as to whether the proof is sufficient.

You see Dennis was not in the 1790 or the 1800 Census of North or S. C. and Ga. census of that date was destroyed, I believe. If we could get the 1810, 1820, 1830 and 1840 Census of Washington, Jefferson , Wilkinson , Laurens, Montgomery, Baldwin , Jones and Putnam Counties Ga. it might possibly prove that Dennis was a resident of some one or more of these counties. In other all the McClendons in these counties at this time.

I can send the other folder for copying any time you wish it. No hurray.

Sincerely,

J. D. McClendon

Mr. M. D. Rutherford,
Chicago

Dear Sir;

We enjoyed your visit very much and wish it could have lasted longer.

I have looked over the sheets attached to your letters and believe they were taken from the various sheets you sent to me, and I should have sent you a copy and if I did not then it was an over sight. These were for my files and had not been put in until our correspondence was complete. So I suspects you will not find these in charts you took along for having typed. I am sure these were for me, but I am sending them to you, so in case you do not have them you can take them or any part of them you wish to be inserted.

I have written on one sheet the marriage records as I have them of Elizabeth A. McClendon of Harris Co., Ga. I think Lemuel and Samuel could be the same name. The A certainly was for Augustus, but then I do not understand the different dates, but then there could have been a mistake there also So you can use this as you see fit.

Now, may be some explanations are necessary. In working a family the first thing I try to do is find a date to place the birth date or marriage date so as to have something to denote the time in which the party lived and in a way of getting around persons by the same name. If I can find the date of birth or marriage of a son or or even a grand son, I can figure back and get about the time the party lived. I figure if I can get the age of a chi I can figure back and get within about 10 years of correct In many cases I come within the year or a very few years of the date. You will find along where I state they were born abt a certain date. This is where I estimate the date and is not a known date. If I know the date I state it without saying aby ab t the date. I abreviate it with abt. I use b for born, y for young. for instance ~~XXX~~ d y died young ~~M~~ m for married. b for born. Etc.

You will find in some cases I have duplicated certain names etc. I was not my intention to do this, but later found additional data and put it in and have not had time to co-ordinate these records. If you have an opportunity to cut some of these duplicates I will be glad. In many cases I notice mispelt words or bad composition that might be helped. Then punctuation can also be helped. In many cases I do not stop to punctuate. Any help they typest can help in , I will be glad.

Sincerely,

J. D. McClendon

Dear Mr. Rutherford;

I wrote Mr ANdrea(Andrea of S. C. , telling him that he might hear from you in reference to looking up some records for you and suggested that he give you good service etc. I am enclosing to you his reply on a postal Card.

I am also enclosing a letter from Mr.Huxford of Homerville, Ga. Now, I feel this is your Dennis McClendon and if you can find where he received this grant for services, then I think we have the rest to prove the line Etc. which will be accepted by D. A. R.

I have just written the Dept. of Archives and History of Atlanta asking if they can locate this land grant. They have already told me they could find nothing but I did not tell them where the record was found, in fact I did not know , only in an indefinate way.

With best wishes and luck in finding and locating the land grant that was given to Dennis of Laurens Co., Ga.

Yours very truly,

Mr. S. E. McClendon,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of December 18th, to hand, anent the McLendons (or McClendond). From my limited information at hand I am unprepared to say whether McLendon and McClendon and McClelland are one and same name or not. I have some records on each one. They don't claim kin.

I find the following McClendons in Knight's Roster of the Revolution giving Rev. soldiers in Georgia: On page 119, Jacob McClendon and Samuel McClendon, and on page 122 Isaac McClendon; and on page 269, Isaac McLendon. In the History of Laurens County Georgia, page 21, it is stated that Dennis McLendon received a bounty land grant for Rev. services and was one of the first settlers of that county. I don't know anything at present about the family of the latter other than I am very sure he is the ancestorof the McLendons who once lived in this county. Dennis McLendon xxxxxxx of Laurens County (apparently another Dennis from the one who was Rev.soldier) was the father of Isaac xxxx Tyson McLendon, xxx 1835-1901, of Clinch county. Dennis McLendon married Martha Tison, born 1803. I have the names of ten children of Dennis and Martha; six of them lived and died in Laurens County. In Montgomery county I found the record of the appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth McClendon as Guardian of William and Dennis McLendon (over age of 14 years) and of Lewis McLendon under age of 14, January 7th, 1811. As Montgomery and Laurens adjoined in those days I would say that the McLendons must have xxxx first lived in Montgomery since it was an older county than Laurens.

I have these scattering items: Burrell McLendon was married in Laurens County July 23, 1816, to Fairiby Joiner. He appears as Justice of Peace, 58th District of Montgomery county, commissioned Feb. 27, 1808. Ephriam McLendon appears on the 1805-6 tax digest of Montgomery County. Nancy McLendon married Wm. Young in Laurens County March 25, 1813. The 1850 Census of Telfair County and the 1860 Census of Coffee county, lists Benjamin McLendon, born 1788 in N.C. and his wife MaryAnn, born 1786, S.C. A son, Joshua L. born 1827 in Emanuel County, was living with them. Needham McLendon, another son, born 1818, married March 24, 1845, in Montgomery County, to Harriet Sears. He died August 31, 1861, a resident of Coffee County. I find a Needham McLendon commissioned lieutenant of the militia in the 52nd district of Emanuel County July 5, 1810.

I have some other records but they are later than the above and probably wouldn't interest you. I think you will find that the McLendons of Mississippi are those who went from Laurens Co. Ga. about 1810-1820 or perhaps later. Would be glad to hear from you further.

Dear Mr. Rutherford;

Your letter was received and noted. The records of S. C. are ready for you. I will send them when you finish the ones you have.

In some old notes I find where Dennis McClendon was granted land 1784 in Washington Co., Ga. I believe I found this in the Secretary's of States office when looking up old land grants. I have written the State Dept. asking if they can verify this record. I feel that this is your ancestor, Dennis. You see Jefferson Co., Ga., was cut off Washington Co., Ga.

I hope to hear from this soon,

Yours very truly,

Joseph, a Rev.War soldier, and also 1812.

Wife Olive was daughter of William Blake and widow Lucy (Allen)Mobley.

W.B. was also Rev.War soldier, moving from near Raleigh, N.C. to lands granted for service in Walker (now Elbert) Co., Ga.

Joseph McClendon's father was Thomas (also Rev.War soldier), b. Edinburgh, Scotland, d. Henry Co., Ga. - his wife was Sarah Cooper d. Roanoke, Ala. aged 92, whose father (name not given) moved from Virginia to Green and Jasper counties, Ga.

Thomas' father with two brothers came to America by way of Ireland, settling in N.C. but one of them, Lewis,left there and is thought to have settled in S.C. Two of Thomas' brothers, Jacob and Isaac, also in Rev.War - Thomas was wounded in war.

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

While re-arranging my genealogical files recently I found this deed whioh I abstracted in South Carolina about two years ago.

If I have not sent it to you, I feel that you should have it.

You will note that this instrument is dated fifteen years prior to those of Joel McClendon of Anson county North Carolina. The question arises then are they the same family or two branches? I believe the latter, but did not have time while in Charleston to do any other McClendon research. At that time I was sent there to check other lines. I wish that I might be able to pursue the matter further.

Dear Mr. Drexel:

Enclosed please find the Land Grant to Dennis McClendon. I decided that a photostatic copy would be the most satisfactory proof. If you desire me to search for Revolutionary service for him I shall be glad to make an intensive search of all available data for ten dollars. You did not authorize me to do this in your letter of July 16. Therefore, I felt it best to ask your permission before proceeding.

The records of Franklin county are here in Atlanta, and I shall be glad to search them for you for eight dollars. This includes a search of wills, deeds, settlements, administrations and marriages.

However I am of the opinion that Dennis McClendon did not reside in Franklin county, but lived in one of the counties which was cut off from Franklin at an early date. Since there are no census records for Georgia prior to 1820, we are forced to rely on Tax Lists to establish place of residence for our ancestors and also the early Land Lottery List in which almost every citizen drew land and listed THE COUNTY IN WHICH HE WAS LIVING at the time of the Land Lottery. I suggest that you permit me to search the Lotteries of 1802 (the first one), 1820, 1821, 1827 and 1832. These will furnish us leads as to where Dennis McClendon resided at those dates. The data which Mr. S.E. McClendon sent you indicates Dennis was living in Jefferson co. Ga. in 1803. I can check the Lottery list for proof of this statement.

P.S. I shall check on the Land Grant to Dennis McClendon. Since it is in Franklin county, I am hoping to find record of him there, and the Franklin co. records are in Atlanta. However there is the possibility that he was cut off into Jackson or some other county. We shall soon see. I shall check the 1803 Land Lottery List which is the only substitute we have for early census records in Georgia. I believe I can also obtain early tax records of Franklin co.

Re: McCLENDON

Since ALL early Washington county records are destroyed (except 1820 census and 1803 Land Lottery) I do not see any way I can ~~fail or~~ comply with your request to "determine which dentist got the land in Washington County."

I do wish that I were able to assist with this.

If you think of any ~~other~~ means other than the Washington county records, I shall be glad to do all in my power.

I am wondering if the word "dentist" is a stenographic error for "Dennis".

The earliest reference which I have located in Georgia to DENNIS is the will of JACOB McCLENDON of Wilkes county who mentions son Dennis in his will which was made 1791; proved 1793

~~which of Dennis mentioned~~

Another Dennis is mentioned in will of John McClendon of Anson county North Carolina proved July 6, 1784. Other legatees were: Son Samuel; daughters Ann and Rebecca; son Sisom. One of the witnesses to this will is still another Dennis McClendon.

I note that the Headright Grant of 287½ acres to Dennis McClendon was in FRANKLIN COUNTY, GEORGIA. I can check the deeds of that county for McClendon tomorrow. I believe we have not searched there for him.

Replying to your letter of May 7 in which you inquire as to whether or not Dennis McClendon was the son of Jacob, I quote in full the abstract of the will of JACOB McClendon of Wilkes county Georgia, proved April 23, 1793:

To son ISAAC - slave Ben

To son SAMUEL - 500 a. on Reedy Branch including the land where Samuel now lives and slave Neroe

To son TRAVIS - a slave Primas

To son DENNIS - 650 acres part of which belonged to John Westbrooks dec'd., and slaves Adam and Dinah

To son AMOS - 600 acres, residue of my land slaves and cattle after his mother's death.

Legacies to his daughters: Jemima, Laney, Penelope, Nancy and Bethaney.

STATE DEPT. OF ARCHIVES

Because Wilkes county was a "port of entry" for so many families from the Carolinas, I checked those records for only the first names of JOEL AND FRANCIS McCLENDON. There are entries for Dennis and many other McClendon names.

Other references to Dennis McCelndon from this same source are as follows:

Nov. 16,1796 - DENNIS McCLENBON one of the appraisers of the estate of Flemin Moss, dec'd.
page 106

July 2, 1800 - Dennis McClendon, security for Stith Barksdale and Sally Lowe, temporary admrs. of Thos Low, dec'd.
p. 136

Mar. 8, 1803 - Petition of Dennis McClendon, assignee of Travis McClendon that titles be executed to 124 a. of land original grant to Jona. Goolsby bond for title from Philip Moss to to Travis(McClendon).
p. 167

Mar. 2, 1807 - Dennis McClendon and Stephen McClendon appointed security for Francis McClend n, guardian of Benjamin Thurmond.
p. 177

Jan. 5, 1814 - Dennis McClendon, DEC'D. Robert Ware appointed administrator.
p. 185

Feb. 14,1814 - Sale of Dennis McClendon. Robert Ware admr.

These records indicate clearly to me that one Dennis McClendon was the son of Jacob McClendon who died apparently before April 23, 1793, and Dennis seems to have lived on in Wilkes county until 1814.

However there is are two men by the name of DENNIS MC CLENDON in the Land Lottery list of 1805(the only substitute Georgia has for early census records). One is the DENNIS of Wilkes co. The other is residing in Jefferson county, and the fact that he is over 21 years of age is proven since he is allowed two draws. It is very probable that he could be your Dennis.

NOTE THIS: THE NEXT THREE NAMES ON THIS LOTTERY LIST IN JEFFERSON COUNTY ARE JOSIAH, MARTIN AND WILLIAM. Each of these received one draw proving they were under age. This certainly ties them to the DENNIS OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, and this is valuable.

A study of tax records of Jefferson at this point might be advisable. I note you have only those for the year 1803.

This past week I had occasion to pass through Eatonton, the county seat of Putnam co. Because a Lemuel Owen and a Dennis McClendon appeared on the few early records which I could find here in Atlanta, I decided to stop and investigate. I searched all the early wills, administrations, marriages and deeds in both names. I found nothing of value to you. Since you did not commision me to do this search, there is no charge. I was hoping for a McClendon lead, but failed. I am sure that your problem on that line will have to be answered in North Carolina.

Re: McClendon

Dear Mrs. Fisher:

I will try to give you an answer to the items mentioned in your letter of October 26th. You refer to the McClendon information in the files of the Department of Archives of Georgia. I didn't know that McClendon had deposited them there that early. I thought he still had most of his data and he sent it to me from New Orleans as you can see by some of the extracts which I sent you.

However, his stuff is rather scrambled and I think it would be well worth while to pull out the used items which we are interested in in our particular line, in other words, and see what you can make of it. Get what information there is and then we will try in each generation to get proof of his statements with the necessary references to the published works or other sources.

Perhaps it would be best to make a report on each individual name as we go along, that is Dennis, Joel and so on. In the McClendon stuff which I have, is what I presume is 1790 census of North Carolina. Is this similar to the material which you mention in your note, or is it from other sources? McClendon has it on page 6 to 7 of the material which I have.

With reference to the marriages of Jasper County, Georgia, this looks quite interesting. If this material is in form where it could be photostated, I would like to have the whole page photostated so that I can use it to substantiate any claim, as this is the only proof we have of the marriage except her statement in the Pension Application.

I note that Lucy Head was married to a McClendon. Could this Head be of the family of the Minister who married them?

Reference from the North Carolina, Dobbs County Militia, is very interesting. That would indicate that he was in the War against the Indians. Perhaps the French and Indian War. Perhaps this also would be the explanation why his grant is of 270 acres. I find that many of them received less than 100 and Joel in the War of 1812 only got 40 acres. He was First Sergeant. Perhaps Dennis was a Lieutenant by the time the Revolutionary War came around.

This Militia roll would be very interesting if it could be photostated as I could then use it in my application for the Colonial Wars.

With reference to the Will of Jesse McLendon and Son Dennis McLendon, do the records we have indicate that this is our Dennis? According to information from Sam McClendon, it would not indicate that.

Any records that you may run across of any kind which bear on these names, I would appreciate your copying or better yet, especially where it is of original documents that are to be photostated.

If I ever get around to writing a book on this, the original papers are much more interesting to put in the book.

According to Sam McClendon of New Orleans, our Dennis McClendon had a wife Elizabeth Maxwell. Can we find anything about her? However, if this is the case the Will of Jesse McClendon with wife Elizabeth, would not be ours, or do you think so?

In any case where you send along a photostat of an original document, I would appreciate your sending also a typewritten copy of it, as I am not very good in deciphering the old style writing in these documents and wish to use the typewritten copy for ready reference.

Yours very truly

Dear Mrs. Fisher:

I am enclosing check for the amount of your invoice of $54.40.

With reference to the McClendons of Jasper Co., there is one thing I can say for them, they certainly didn't indulge in race suicide. There were a lot of them.

However, the one fact that we have to start with is that we had a Joel who was in the war of 1812 and didn't die until a long time after the Joel whose administration of the estate that we have record of. This must be another Joel and doesn't help us much, except to eliminate that name from our consideration.

We of course would like to know if the Francis is the one whom we hope he is and also if we can prove that the dentist who had the grant of land is in our line. DENNIS

Would like to have you go over the files which you sent me and write me as to what you think we have discovered. Make a chart if necessary and try to place these various McClendons.

With reference to any census report which you may

Dear Mrs. Fisher:

I have returned and would like to get going again on the missing and duplicate Dennis and other McClendons. I am enclosing some items which I secured from various sources which may be a repetition of what we have and on the other hand, it may be some new material there.

Also enclosing the letter from Mr. Huxford which was not enclosed previously.

It would seem as though possibly these North Carolina McClendons preceded the ones in Georgia, but perhaps they are a different line.

You will also note that we have some information on the Ussery family. You will recall that this name cropped up in the Owens line and I am wondering if they are a possible other line which might give us some information.

I just returned from a trip of the Southwest and Far West where I interviewed a number of distant relatives but I found nothing, or very little that would be of any benefit to me. I am quite sure now that V.G. Woodhouse, the Doctor, died and was buried in Mississippi. I did not find out the name of the father or grandfather rather, of Gertrude Woodhouse, formerly Gertrude Owen. We still have the two prospects of Lemuel and a Robert for that.

I have the names of several other relatives to write who may be of assistance to me, however.

Make a survey of what we have found up to this time and see if what I am sending you ties in, and let me know soon what you may have.

Memo to Mrs. Albert L. Fisher:

Regarding the above, it seems obvious that Dennis McClendon sold the 287½ acres, which he got in the Franklin County Grant, at some later date. This date, if we could find out what it was, would be interesting to know. The Deed you sent me does not show it.

I do not have my files in front of me. Do you interpret the Dennis of Wilkes County as "our Dennis"?

I have been able to check into some more records and am enclosing notes gathered from them. While this does not connect your McClendon branch to those mentioned here, I do think they are relatives, and if so, are of interest from that angle. They too came from North Carolina and it does appear that your line must come through Thomas' father and then through either Thomas or one of his brothers.

I have found in the North Carolina Colonial State papers some McClendon references, and it is interesting to note that the name "JOEL" is found. In 1781, Joel McClendon was a Justice of the Peach and was brought to trial, being accused of misusing his office, along with another man; he was acuquitted; this was Montgomery Co., N. C. The reference is found in Vol. 17, pp 646,652-53,733,847-8.

In Vol. 4 pp 854-and 891, we find at a Council Meeting at Newberg, March 24, 1747, among the petitions for land warrants, the names of Joel McClendon and Jacob McClendon--they were granted 300 acres each in Bladen Co.; not stated where they lived at this time. The name of McClendon is also found in references to Perquimans Co., and Bertie Co.

From the Hist. Collections of the Georgia chapters, D.A.R. I found in Vol 1, pp. 35-43, and index of wills of Jasper Co., as follows:

Possibly these will be of use in checking records in the county itself.

I wish to add that my friend made search on the McClendon line especially but was unable to connect directly to your Joel. In the Sumter Co., S. C. wills, Book D., Vol. 2, p. 215, there is a will of Jacob McLendon in which a son, Joseph is mentioned--Joseph C. McLendon.

In Vol. 1, Book AA, page 37, a will of a Lewis McLendon (see my note re the family on other page of this letter-- a Lewis is mentioned there).

In the Charleston will, Vol. 14A--1771-1774, page 29 Mary McLondon, 1768--no children. I realize that this is S. C. and not N. C. but there was undoubtedly relationship between the families of the two states.

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

We are in receipt of your letter of April 1, 1953.

The title to No. 246, "Revolutionary Soldiers Receipts for Georgia Bounty Grants" is misleading in that it is not a genealogical work and contains no names of individuals; merely contemporary documents and we feel sure that you would not want it for genealogical purposes.

Reference to the names you mention, the name Robert Owens is contained in the index to No. 246, but the names Denis McClendon and Francis McClendon are not mentioned.

Sincerely,

Walton O. Folk

If this was our Lemuel's father, our Lemuel would have been about 23 years old when he married, which could be- or this could have been a 2nd marriage.
(Bet. letter pushed date up 4 years)

p. 59- FISHER says she made every effort to find father of L.A., in letter of Dec.5, 1952.

p. 60- 12/8/1952 Finds marriage of Lemuel A. Owen and Elizabeth A. McClendon, Nov.8,1838 in Harris Co., Ga.
(Other references show 1834- 1836 Harris Co.Ga.)

p. 55 Whole page on deeds- Lemuel Owen in Putnam Co. from 1808 to 1817. Too early for ours, who was not married until 1834. Why isn't this our Lemuel's dad?

p. 60- No Woodhouse nor Lem. A. Owens in 1880 Census in Chickasaw Co., Miss- probably gone to Texas.

FISHER ON WHITES.

p. 77 Will of John White, Jasper Co., Ga., 7/31/1823. SARAH was born 1795 so John could not have been her father if he was old enough for grand-children- and this could not be our "Sally"- his grandchild as her name was McClendon in 1823.

p. 76- Will of John M. White, 1832- this John did not say what his grandchild Sarah's last name was.

p.80- Uncertain about Cyrus White.

p. 83- None of these Whites, father of Sarah, b. 1795, m.1814. The Cyrus could have been brother and as a private in War of 1812, son of Cyrus, the Captain- Jasper Co.,Ga.

pp. 84-90 All deeds and wills of Jasper Co.,Ga., listed of the Whites were of such dates that any of them could have been the father of Sarah, wife of Joel McClendon.

p. 91- Fisher said the same as I did about p. 77.

p. 93- Not "Sally's" father.

p. 94. Not our McClendons.

Dennis McClendon a soldier? p.1 of McClendon Black Book.

A Dennis McClendon granted land 1784 in Washington Co.,Ga. Letter 3/9/1949 from S.E.McClendon thinks our Dennis as in Jefferson Co., where he lived- was cut off Washington Co.,Ga. In letter said he would verify it- did he ever?

Later 3/16/1949 says he is enclosing letter from State Dept.at Atlanta- where is it?

Further- he says try D.A.R. Or write Dept.Archives & Historical Soc.of Raleigh, N.C. Has it been done?

pp. 4-5 ofMCClendon black book S.E.McClendon states his belief Dennis McC. was a Rev.soldier; also states his son, Josiah, was a Rev.soldier, tho' nothing more than a boy at the time. Mentions Jonathan D.McClendon.

p. 15- Dennis, son of John of Anson Co.,N.C., born ca 1762- not the one.

p.26- Dennis J. McLendon- grant 150 A., N.C.1714- not the one.

p.
p. 29- No Rev.grant or service mentioned for Dennis in Wilmington District.

p. 41- says he has written State Archives, undated letter (Reply?) says hopes success in finding grant in Laurens Co., Ga. p.42- Huxford letter- Hist. Laurens Co.,Ga., p. 21- grant to Dennis (date amt.?) for Rev. service. Speaks of a Dennis, probably not the soldier, who lived there, and from checking the family he names, knew that one not the soldier, is not ours. Thinks the Miss. McClendons are the ones who came from Laurens Co.

p. 44- McC. says "I think Dennis was a Rev. soldier, but this has not been proved. He was a Rev. soldier but do not know our proof would be accepted.

p. 45- S.E.McClendon's letter says the Dennis, who was father of Francis (who was father of Joel) was a Revolutionary soldier.

To answer the question about the children of John and Mary McC.

Will of Jesse McL. proved 1782 Duplin Co., wife Elizabeth, five boys, Henry, Thomas, Jesse, Wm. and Dennis. Cannot be our Dennis for his father is John and his brothers are Lewis, Jesse and Simon according to McC. Black Fisher

McClendon says "In the Colonial Records is found John McCl. and his wife, Mary. At tha' time I suspect this is the only John Mc in N.C. I suspec that Mary left her will in Charlestown naming her four children, Lewis, Dennis, Jesse and Simon, was the widow of John. No proof of this is found. It is the only break in your line."

Apparently not the JOEL McC- in question:

witnessed by Jesse and Simon.

Jesse's will 1783/5 was in Duplin Co.and witnessed by p.11 Simon.

p.13 Lewis m. 1750 at age of 22; then would have been which practically that John and Mary were the parents of these four sons.

p.14 Dennis,father of Francis & John and Josiah, etc., was in Jefferson Co.,Ga.,in 1803, and p.14 Josiah. born 1766, were all in 1850 Census.

John Macklendon, p.4, says Francis' father, Dennis, was in Revolution and another page says he was a Tory and was arrested. This family of Macklendon in Ga. say their ancestors were from Cheraw, S.C.to Ga.

p.14 Francis' bro.,Dennis, was born in S.C. 1796.

Francis and wife, Frances, from Hancok Co.,Ga.,1797 prob.from N.C.

p.15 In Jefferson Co.,Ga., in 1803, Reid's District, resided Dennis and his sons,Josiah & Martin. This Dennis (McClendel) of Jeff.Co.,Ga.,is supposed to be the husband of Elizabeth Maxwell McClendel of Jones & Putnam Co.,later.

To be investigated.

A Dennis was an Ensign in the 1761 Roll of Dobb's Co. from which Duplin was formed. Fisher speaks of Jesse mentioning his son,Dennis, but that would not necessarily mean that this Dennis was the son of Jesse- we do not have Jesse in the line.
I raised the same question that you do in your letter to Fisher 11/3/1952 on Dennis and Jesse.

Fisher's Deed Book Records of Wilkes Co. 1788 could not be our Joel because he was born in 1785.

Fisher's County Putnam Deeds include 5 for Joel McC. which could be according to his age. One witness is William Hearn and one J.P.Lot. The two references for Dennis, 1818 and 1820, could not have been our last Dennis.

Administration of Estate of Joel evidently begin Jan.28,1837,thru 1839 is not our Joel who died in 1866, nor an uncle of our Joel as Joel's father Francis had no brother Joel nor uncle Joel.

OWEN

I am enclosing some data which I was able to locate after you wrote me recently, re: the Owen line. I am sure this is new to you and believe it should prove of much interest. I feel certain that I have found additional data of your McClendon line to which you but recently refe red to for the first time. I decided to see what might turn up on a possible 1812 pension search; I examined all of this name which they had for any such of the name in Georgia at that time. There were seven pensions. Upon examining all, I found that only one, the one enclosed, that of Jool and wife arah, fitted our search. I think you will agree that these were the parents of your Elizabeth Ann McClendon. Note that Joel had a daughter Sarah, who in 1870 was still unmarried and living with her mother in her brother's family. The Doctor whom you also menti.ned; I judge the "J" stands for Jacob. I did not find him in the 1850 record but perhaps he was away studying to be a doctor.

This data also shows that the McClendons came from North Carolina, where Joel was born in 1784-85 and that his wife was a White, born in Georgia. I hope to search further on both of these lines, with good luck.

Now in the pension application, note that J. McClendon and Sarah W. were married in Jasper County, Georgia. I am enclosing a search there for 1830 and 1840, but did not find Joel, Sr. either year, although a younger Joel is shown in 1830. My guess is that some time after 1835, when Joel's daughter arah was born in Georgia, the family moved to Alabama. For one thing the examiner's pension notes noted that Joel was in Chickasaw County, Miss. 1850-1855 during which time, he made two applications for land. Another think note that several children of William Mc., were born in Alabama. I believe that William Mc. was a son of Joel, also recall that several of the children of your Augustus Owen, were born in Alabama. Referring again to the Jasper County records, note quite a number of McClendon families. This might be of value in later searches.

Further note that in1870 the census of Chickasaw County, I searched only township #f 15. In so doing, I was able t pick up other data of interest. Here we find your Augustus Owen and family; note that here he is called "Lemuel A", and in 1860 was given as "L.A.". In 1850 as "Samuel". I now believe that the right name was "Lemuel".

The Richard Owen (and family) found near L.A.O. may have been a brother, and if so, indicates the family was from South Carolina. The Silvia Owen listed with Lemuel might have been an order sister, or a widow of some Owen. Note she also comes from South Carolina. Maybe your correspondent in or near Chickasaw County might determine who she was, from the records there as well as verify the other data too. Another interesting thing to note is that in 1870 a record of your Woodhouse line, which I found in this same township, your Sarah Owen Woodhouse is here shown as born in Alabama, and in 1850, as you recall, was given as born in Georgia. Which is correct I do not know. One would think her parents were more correct, in 1850 when information was furnished to the enumerator. I wonder where in Alabama they were - what county.

Again note enclosed an Owen record for 1830, Jasper County, Georgia. Here we find three Owen lines and one owens line. We find here of particular interest, I think, a Robert Owen and family. This could well be the family of your L.A.O. Your L.A.O. named his first son, Robert, and here we have one of the males between 15 and 20 when L.A.O. was 18 or 19. I did not find this family in 1840, maybe they too, had gone to Alabama -- maybe another Georgia County. I still feel as I have mentioned in a former letter, that you have a ussery line some place, it could be that Lemuel Owen's moth was of that family. That family came from the Carolinas, at leant that name is often found there.

From Sallie G. Giberson - August 24, 1956

I have a Bible that belonged to Elizabeth Ann Owen, my grandmother, with the name of G. A. McLendon in it. (Any other names? No record of this - brother of E.A.O. MDR) The copyright was 1858. Do you have this name or the initials? (No)

Then I have a letter, written by Elizabeth's brother, J. M. McLendon, or maybe it is an I - look at your list of McLendons, the I or J looks like one on Uncle Polk Paden's . (Send to me or photostat MDR)

Aunt Sallie McLendon must have been Uncle Jake's wife - their farm joined the Owen farm in Miss. (Yes MDR)

I find in Uncle Robert's letters - he mentions Dock very often, in almost every letter - this was your grandfather, Woodhouse. They were in the 24th Miss. Reg. - not in the same Company. (Do you have any reference to being a prisoner - also V. G. Woodhouse MDR)

From Sallie G. Giberson - March 25, 1956

I have collected some valuable facts on my father's line. Can't work on father's and mother's both at once. Will take up the Owen line after the Glasscock line is finished or nearly so.

I sent you something about thinking that Spencer Glasscock, oldest son of Peter of Rowan Co. No. Car. You sent me a copy of Peter's Will of date Oct. 24, 1783. I believe that Peter and his first wife lived in Farquer Co. Va. and that 8 children were born to them there. Spencer was one. See 1790 Census. Then Peter married Mary and 8 children were born in Rowan Co. N. Car.

See List of Marriages of No. Car. - Spencer married Polly Enochs, Sept. 12, 1791. I believe that Spencer is the father of Moses Herndon G. (my grandfather) born there in 1794.

Spencer came to Davidson Co. Tenn. and did some trading - so did Gabriel Enochs (either her father or brother). Spencer went back to Rowan and disposed of some land to his brothers. He came back to Davidson Co. 1804 and lived until 1809. Died 1821 - left no Will. James (probably his brother or a son) was adm. of the Estate.

Rutherford County was taken from Davidson in 1804. Spencer owned land on both sides of Stone River which runs through Davidson & Rutherford Counties. Spencer must have died in Rutherford Co. And here in Rutherford Co. I locafed my grandfather, Moses H. G. There are 4 Deeds of his there - the 1812 and 1813 Deeds came from the Nashville Archives. The others, 1825 and 1829 are in the Co. Records.

I have written to Washington, D. C. for the copies of the 1810, 1820, and 1830 census of both counties. Takes about three weeks to get them. I have a card saying they had my order. As soon as they arrive, I will have the records with these included copied and send to you. "Spencer" is my connecting family link.

Another one of Peter's sons, William, settled in Overton Co. Tenn. About 6 Deeds are there of his. He had 5 sons, 4 of them settled in Mo. One, John J. Glasscock remained in Overton Co. - died there in 1860. A grandson of William's, past 80 years old and trembly, wrote me this information. (Co. Judge sent me his name.)

Charles, another son of Peter's went back to Farquer Co. and married Clemence Dulin, Jan. 15, 1795 (See your page Dulin of Vir. & No. Car. "The Will of Wm. Dulin") His son came back to Rowan Co. No. Car.

A cousin in Ala. has found my grandfather's (M.H.G's) Will - probated 1867. He died 1865 or 66 and is buried on his own homestead - am trying hard to get a copy. These cousins are descendants of Basil Gaither Glasscock - brother of M.H.G. - named for Basil Gaither who signed Peter's Will. (Gregory's too)

I have not heard a word from Carstarphen. The last I heard he had bought a home and his wife was in the hoppital. His new address: 3502 Gilbert St., Austin 3, Texas.

Dear Cousin:

I received your letter of August 30th, and facts, for which I thank you very much.

With reference to the Owen farm in Mississippi, and the Owen family there, I have a record of V. G. Woodhouse, as a member of the local Masonic Lodge also.

Your extracts from Uncle Roberts letter are most interesting and will help me considerably in tracing the service of V. G. W. I had no record of his service after August 1863. The Camp Douglas you refer to is here in Chicago, and some 6,000 Confederate soldiers who died there are buried in Oakwood Cemetery.

I had the pleasure of officiating as Program Chairman, and delivered a Memorial Day address on May 30th, of this year. I had always understood that only Revolutionary Officers were kept at this camp, whereas your reference would indicate that Uncle Robert commanded the troups.

With reference to V.G.W. in 1864, gives me further information as to his Military Service. The only reference I do not quite under is the one of November 10, 1864, stating "Glad Dock has got home". Is there any explanation as to how he was able to return home before the war was over. I am wondering whether V.G.W. was later captured and was in some Texas Prison, of course, the war ended in 1865 and no mentioned time.

You also refer to L. A. Owen teaching in an Academy near by. Do you remember the location or name of the Academy? Also reference and letter dated September 14, 1864 writing to his father, L. A. Owens" stating "Leaving home to join the Malitia."

I am enclosing copy of information which I received from the Archives and History at Washington on an Augustus G. Owen. Do you think that this could be the same man. Note that apparently this man was in the service June 30th, 1862, or rather, in the middle of 1862, whereas Roberts letter would seem to indicate that L. A. Owen, did not get into the service until 1864. Although it is possible that due to poor communication during that period that he evidently had been in the service for a long time, and Robert knew of it.

Dear Cousin Sallie,

Your letter was like a voice from the past. How I wish you had started this collecting data while Mother was yet alive. She lived in the past so much in her latter years but I had a growing family then and so busy I didn't think as much about her family as I have lately.

I'll do as you asked write things I do remember however. Dad was 6 years older than Mother, in fact was in love with your Mother but said your Mother had said she would never marry a neighborhood boy so he turned to Mother. Mother was next to Uncle Fred was born Dec. 6, 1854 died Apr. 19, 1928 a month after Dad. Both are buried at Canton, Okla., as is brother John. Will put down what little I remember of Grandmother Owen. I was her namesake she left an album to me and I still have the note she wrote one night and pinned on the front page. Grandpa Owen was never strong, he farmed some and built Casketo for the neighborhood. They had lived so long in Mississippi when they finally followed the children to Texas grandmother was so homesick she'd very often take a Bible and songbook and go up on a hill and there have devotions all by herself. They had lived real close to the little church where they used to attend and always entertained those wholived quite aways away and wanted to stay over for evening services.

I ran across an article in the Christian Standard not long ago and it hit something a way back in my mind about those grand old preachers of the restoration days. My letter will be kinda disjointed Cousin Sallie but remember I'm just writing as these things come to mind.

When Mother and Dad married they went to Harvey Co. Kans. where Grandfather Paden had homesteaded. Dads sister Fanny and husband were there too and the first year was that terrible year of the grasshoppers so they decided to go south for the winter. They sold household goods and oxen and got a team of horses and the four of them and babies started for Texas. At Paulsvalley, Okla., they ran out of money and food so had to stop and pick cotton before going on. Fannies husband, took sick and died of typhoid fever just after they crossed the line so she went to stay with an uncle.

Dad found work on a farm but soon they both took that fever a baby (Carl) took it and died. Their life was hard share cropping more babies. They were living in Lamar or Collin Co. when Aunt Gertrude lost her husband and she and children rented a small farm near them. Aunt Gertrude died there of T.B. I think and Dale her only boy came to live with us. The girls Ella and Nellie Fannie, Ida as well as Dale all died of T.B. later and we were all amazed that some of us didn't take it too. All of Fannies children died of the same thing except Frank and R.C.. Dad moved from Collin Co. to Hunt Co. near Quinlan. Dads sister visited us in 1901 and persuaded Dad to move to Kans. We lived there until 1906 then moved to Okla., where as I said before they died.

The folks never had much of this worlds goods but they were wonderful Christians, Friends, relatives and strangers were welcome,

I never knew a tramp to be turned away. Mother taught us so much about the Bible. I've taught the Womens Bible Class for the past 15 years and over and over again her teaching come back the same thoughts of our great preachers and College Professors. Mother enjoyed your Mothers letters so much. I well remember the letter your Mother wrote about the storm at Angleton same time as Galveston how Mother would read and then cry, about what a time you had.

Yes Cousin Sallie its a shame we haven't really known more of each other all these years. You spoke of Cordie but didn't mention your brother Dr. is he alive and do you have other brothers and sisters? Henry Owen son of Uncle Usery was in Ft. Worth in 1913 working ina large department store. I think Maggie Cutler lives in Texas but I don't know where. Mother and Dad had ten children but only four of us are left. Ora at Gerties address and Owen lives at Canton Okla., Gertie and myself. My husband and I try to go back to Okla., every 2 or 3 years. The next time we go, Lord willing, I hope you can meet us at Gertrudes of her daughter Vivian. They enjoyed Drexel so much. He was so tired when he got here he didn't stay long, he sure talked while here tho' and I gave him some pictures.

I'll try to fill out your blanks about the children and my brothers and sisters but just now a little about myself and family.

I was married to James Mabry in Enid Okla in 1910 moved to Watonga in 1913 later Eagle City where we stayed until my first husband died. My boys were both out here and Helen and I came but and stayed 7 months, went back to let her finish High School. My present husband lost his wife and he went back to the same town from California where we met again. We had been class mates in High School. We were married in 1946 and came out here to live. He is a fine man, an elder, trustie and treasurer of our church here. We have 1½ acres and a large older type house; fruit --- apples, pears, plums, prunes, cherries, grapes, strawberries, youngberries, nector and blackberries and can grow most everything. Its lots of work in the garden line even to giving away the surplus but we enjoy it and our flowers, we specialize in Iris & Dahlias.

My children are out here. Boyd lives at Seaside - 60 miles away- Pontiac Dealer. (a resort on coast) Carl lives at Hillsboro, 9 miles away and is a district man for the "Orgonian."

Helens husband also works for the same paper and they live 5 miles away. They have the sweetest baby, a boy, and so happy and healthy.

Berts children died in California.

Its 3:30 a.m. I couldn't sleep so thought I'd write. Do you have nights like this? I'm real proud to have a cousin who is an author, maybe some day I can read your books. I'm glad you are writing this book on the Owen family even if I can't add much to it. Have often thought if I ever came to the time when I'm not rushing from one thing to another I'd write something just so the children would know but your book will be much more complete.

over.

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson Aug. 24, 1955

After "running down" the old issues of the Honey Grove Signals, I decided to go to Dallas and read them. Was disappointed that the 1880 issues were not there, and not many of the 1890's. But I really read them, had to use a magnifying glass part time, the printing was so dim and pages torn. Thought I'd find the articles of our Owen family deaths - but not even our grandmother's was there. Most of them passed away in the 1880's. I did see mention of all our family several times, especially Uncle Usery - mention of how ill Henry was. We were there when he was so seriously ill. It was Uncle Fred who saved his life. Then here and there mentioned my own family of Glasscock. It was like having a visit with the dead. Anyway was glad to see what I could find.

One exciting thing I did discover, was a man in Fort Worth, named Henry Owen, he was in a large Dept. Store, My friend, the lady I was visiting, had found the name. So I was curious to meet him. She took me to the Store, and I went to the Personnel Dept. and found his name. He is salesman there. I went to him and we talked as long as we dared. He is Henry C. Owen. He said he knew our Henry Phipps Owen, well. And that he was in Honey Grove, the last he saw of him. Said they both had been on the road. He knew that Owen was Welsh, etc. He is a fine looking man - said he was 72 - but he could pass for 52. I am writing to him about our family and will send his name and address to Drexel - they two might get some real facts. Said he moved from Tenn. to Texas. And his sister married a Dr. Fred Davies at Petty, Texas. We had Dr. Davies for our physician and I remember them both - of course both have been dead several years. Mr. Owen said he went to Petty often when his sister was alive.

Maybe some day, we will locate our Henry. I still am planning to go to Honey Grove - as soon as I save up enough money for the trip - not that it will cost too much but do not want to be skimped. I asked a cousin there to take a snap-shot of the Owen plot. Said he went to the Cemetery but could not find the plot - guess it is covered with weeds. But I'll see for myself some of these days.

ROBERT OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - May 15, ?

Enclosed find a copy of my work in and among the Texas State Archives. I enjoyed finding all our people - did find all except Aunt Gertrude and Uncle Usery. At least this proves where the folks were born.

And do hope we can soon find out who the father of Lemuel Owen was. I think it must be Robert Owen, who was the soldier in the Rev. War - then got a land bounty of 287½ acres of land in Ga. in 1785. So, this sounds like the one. His name would be in the 1870 census of Vir. and probably in the 1880 census of Ga. might be in Vir. before he came into Ga. These two census gives the ages, and tells where the person was born - also, where his father & mother were born.

OWEN

Sallie G. Giberson - July 12, 1955

I wrote to the Vital Statistics Deptl of Collin County and asked about Aunt Gertrude's death. Strange to say they have no information. I also wrote to the Cemetery Association and they say the same. This is all very strange to me that no records were kept. I have done the same of Uncle Fred - no records at all.

We have nothing further on our great grandfather Lemuel Owen, born in Virginia. I am still searching through all the Vir. material in our Library. He must have come to Ga. early. He married Mary Moreland, long about 1815 and he, himself, was born 1860 to 1870. We at least have this part of the information.

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - No date

Our family Bible was destroyed in the terrible Galveston hurricane, long years ago.

Here we are:

Our grandfather - Lemuel Augustus Owen, born 1811, died Jan. 1, 1887
Our grandmother Owen, Margaret Ann McClendon Owen, born Nov. 23, 1818 died Dec. 1---

Their children were: I do not know the order in which they came:

Gertrude, born 2-6-1839 - died 7-14-1894 - married V. G. Woodhouse
Laura born died never married
Mary Elizabeth, born 6-16-1846, died 8-31, 1929, married J. K. Glasscock
Flora born died married Will Johnson
Oscar born died
Robert F. born died never married
J. Usery born died married Cora Phipps
Ellen born died married J. K. Polk
Fred born died married twice

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson Sept. 13th ?

I will read the 1850 Census of Jefferson Co., Ark - but doubt that he was there that early (L. A. Owen). I think our folks didn't leave Miss. until the 70's - they stopped at Uncle Cyrus' on the way. And who is Russia Owen?? I have a letter from her and she mentioned Ora. Was she a dau. of Cyrus?

I did read the 1850 Census (that is the only date) our Library has. Here are the names of the family for that year - three were not born by 1850 but afterwards. Also there was a letter from Flora Cutler, Maggie's dau. to my Mother. She was teaching. I will read the Census of both Counties Hunt and Collin for 1880 - however some of them are younger than this. Who is this David F. Owen who lived in Chickasaw Co? Must be a nephew of our L.A.'s. Joel McClendon was the only one I found of that family. And who was the Aunt they called "Aunt Thankful?" What was her last name? Now, that our Library is buying the Census of 1850, I want to get all information I can for all of us.

Poor Aunt Flora tried to sew ⊖ but her hands shook so - she could hardly hold a needle. They left us to go to Doss Holder's. Cordie has the picture of him - he married Fannie Woodhouse, didn't he? Cordie has the picture of Russia Owen too. Be shure to say who she is.

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - March 26, 1955

At last, I have found one of Uncle Fred Owen's daughters. Please write her and tell Ora and Annie to do the same.

I wrote to the Supt. of the Bonham Public Schools, asking for the name or names of any of the Owen children - I know they attended school there in Bonham. They sent me the name of a daughter - and said nothing else about them, nor gave me any other name than this one:

Miss Bess Owen
Office of the Western Union Telegraph Co.
Dallas, Texas

I wrote her immediately and put in a self addressed envelope for reply. So far, no answer. She may not be interested in our connection. I told her that "I hoped she would receive my letter in the spirit in which I wrote it" - that her father and my mother were brother and sister. And that I hoped she was as much interested in the Owen family, as I was. Of course, she has never heard of me, may be timid in writing to me - so if you three girls write, maybe she will answer you. Please send the address and name on to Ora and Annie.

Now, I have another paper to send you. This one is the Warrent of another Robert Owen, our forbear, who was in the service of the Revolutionary War for 3 yrs, in Virginia - when the colonies were freed from Great Britian. I have the negative - and have to have copies made from it for Drexel and you.

We did make a great discovery - I say we, because I am working, too. We found our great grand-father, the father of our own Lemuel Augustus Owen. His name is Lemuel - no initial in the name. We still have one step to go - backward to Vir. to the Robert Owen, the first, soldier of the Rev. War. When you get the paper, you will see Henry Owen, listed lalong with Robert O. This Henry might be our next step backward to Lemuel(s father. That name in Grandfather O's book still puzzles Drexel and me. It is W. B. Owen. Could be a brother. He did have Cyrus, we are sure of. I wrote this once before - thinking that maybe you might have heard our grandmother mention him.

Brother was deaf and dumb - Etta Bowden - near Farmersville - about 26 in 1903 - Gertrude W.,Friend of Nellie W, lived south of Farmersville, probably member of Christian Church - no church but held in school house - search near there in small graveyards.

CWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - April 30, 1955

I have a copy of a deed from Pike Co. Georgia. In this deed, we no longer are in doubt about our grandfather L.A. Cwen's father. He was Lemuel Owen, no initial. Born in Virginia but we do not have as yet found the county. And besides this, we found the deed stated that the W. B. Cwen we have worried about all these years - name in his school book is L.A's own brother - the deed is written by W. B. Owen - his full name William B. Cwen - don't know for sure what the B. is for - but we see Benjaman in all the records. He signs either William B. or just W. B. He and Cyrus are both older than grandfather, L. A. Cwen. Drexel thinks that perhaps Lemuel Owen might have married twice, as he was so old and so was his wife who ever she may be when L. A. was born.

We have one step backward - now to find the father of Lemuel Owen, in Virginia. We are hunting through the census of 1870 and 1880 in Virginia the 1800 and the 1890 census were destroyed. If we can just find the county in Vir. this would be easy. I hunt through all the books on Vir. in our own Library - and have written so many letters to the State Liabrary in Vir. and sure we will find the facts - takes some time.

Ann Spencer must have been a niece of our grandmother Cwen.

Maybe this Etta Bowden still lives in Farmersville or some of her children. Could you write the Chamber of Commerce - giving the names, dates, etc.?

Where did your family live when we visited you - the time you and Coridie ate the coffee beans under the house? Was this Collin County?

And where did Aunt Flora and family live at that time? We went to see them too. And do you know where Aunt Gertrude lived? I want to write to the County - is it Collin for all? I'd like to get a copy of the census of the county. Drexel thinks Aunt Gertrude is buried in Collin County. I'll try writing to the Cemetery Association.

I plan to go to Austin to the State Labrary - this May 10 to 15 - to read the microfilms of Lamar Co. and Fannin Co. am trying to find Uncle Fred in Fannin. This Library in Austin has all the census of 1850-60-70-80. Some of our mother's people were in Lamar and some in Fannin - now please tell me quickly if there are any other counties. These counties are not written alphabetically, so it will take a long time to go through just one county.

The Owen Family

1. The name Owen:

The name Owen is Welch - - - - derived from Celtic Ain (Oin) equivalent to John.

1. The early Welch form is Owain and Owain.
2. Another Welch form is Evan.
3. The English form is Ewen.
4. The Irish form is Hogan.

(From the book, Genealogy of Names by Delquest, 1928.

2. Owen in Wales:

Owen, ap Robert Owen of Anglesey was an ancestor of the Griffith line, and marriage connections include the Earls of Aylesford, and the noble house of Treven of Trevalyn.

The Welsh name of Griffith is Gruffyed. The last King of Wales, a forefather, was named Lleyellyn, who was the son of Griffith - also a King.

This was about 1700, or a little after.

(From the Book, Colonial Families of America, Pg. 161, by Allahen Gen. Co. Vol. I, 1909. The picture of the Coat-of-Arms is on Pg. 159.)

3. Owen in Virginia:

Robert Owen, a soldier, 3 years, in the Revolutionary War of 1776-1783.

I have a copy of the Auditor's Account Book, XXII, Reg. C232. Richmond, Virginia, 9th June 1879 - Militia.

Warrant to Robert Owen for his Services. There is a list of names, among them, Henry Owen. I'll have a copy made for you. This leads me to believe that Henry Owen is our next step forward (backward) on the Owen line. They could be brothers. I'm just figuring on this, you see. It will have to be proved. Am sending a copy on to Drexel for him to check.

I find Robert Owen of Hallifax County, Virginia, married to Margaret Roberts, June 30, 1816. 20 to 30 years of age. We think this is the Soldier, Robert Owen. No record of any children. By this time people were moving westward into No. Car. and Georgia, where new lands were opened to settlers.

~~War between the States (1861-1865)~~ Died:

(Copy of ~~his~~ Record from the War Dept. Washington, D.C.)

ROBERT F. OWEN joined the Confederate service at Mariam, Miss., under Capt. Lyle and Col. Dowd in Wallthall's Brigade, Wither's Division, Army of Tenn.

The Army went from Mariam Miss. to Perdina, Fla. where it stayed five months. From Fla. the Army went through Ga. and East Tenn. into the Kentucky campaign, where Robert was wounded in the Battle of Perryville, Ky. The Army then went through East Tenn., into Middle Tenn., and Robert fought in the battle of Murfreesboro. From this place they went to Tullahoma, on to Dalton, Ga. Robert then fought in the Battles of Chickamauga, Missenary Ridge, Lookout Mountain, and returned to Dalton Ga. He went from there with Joseph E. Johnston to Atlanta, Ga. where he fought in all the Battles around Atlanta, Ga.

From Atlanta, Ga. he went with John B. Hood to Franklin, Tenn. His last battle was on the bloody field of Franklin, Tenn., 1864, where all the officers being killed, Robert F.Owen, commanded the Company, was captured ~~x~~ on the breast-works, and taken to Camp Douglas Prison, Chicago, Ill. ~~Xxxx~~ Here he remained until the close of the War.

He was in eleven major battles and many skirmishes. He was exchanged and walked home to the Owen farm (his home) reaching there in June, 1865.

Miss. The Owen farm was located at "The Forks in the Roads" - one leading to Meridian, the other to Hazlinden, Miss. The children of this family watched all four roads watching for returning service men. Laura, his sister saw him first, and ran with her long, coal black hair streaming down her back, to meet him. His mother was so overcome with emotion, she had to leave the room for a short time. After he was seated, she came in to see him. His feet were so swollen, he could scarcely walk - he was pale and ill from the effects of the prison life. The Owen family lived on this farm in Chickasaw County, Miss. from 1847 to 1871. In 1871 they moved to Texas, Lamar Co.,

Which is older Laura or Robert F.?

So, we must have 1 born in Ga., 3 in Ala. 5 in Miss.

(Do you have any information on this?)

I have a copy of the service of our grandfather, L. A.Owen in the war between the States.

This is a copy of ~~xx~~ a letter written by our ~~xxxx~~ grandfather Lemuel Augustus Owen from Camp H----- Pontotoc, Miss. (which means Miss.)

Date - December 11, 1863. Sorry those two words are not clear. Maybe you can make them out. I wrote Drexel for a clearer copy - he sent me this one, but it is no clearer than the first. He says his is the same. Think I shall write to the Adj. of Miss. and find out. Anyway, I'm sending this ~~xxx~~ copy on to you, for your record. It might be well for you to copy the letter off in long hand - least it fade out completely in later years.

INFORMATION: This regiment was formed by the consolidation of Steed's Battalion and Sander's Tennessee Battalion, under the command of Col. Horace H. Miller, formerly of the Twentieth Infantry, which was mounted during the Vicksbury campaign... In September it is listed in Ferguson's Brigade with Eleventh and Twelfth Mississippi, and Second and Forty-sixth Alabama. Ferguson's Brigade in the fall of 1864, was transferred to Gen. Joseph Wheeler's Cavalry, and was in Wheeler's battles during Sherman's march to Savannah and seige of that City."

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - Aug. 24, 1954

But we both are trying to get information about the Owen family. Will you please tell me anything you know about them. the order of ages: Gertrude was first, either Aunt Laura or Uncle Robert was next, then came my mother, Mary, Uncle Usery, the twins - Flora and Oscar (died when a small boy), Aunt Flora, Aunt Ellen, and Uncle Fred the last (or was Aunt Ellen younger?).

And do you know any of their birthdays? dates of their deaths?

I have written and written to the cemetery at Honey Grove about the graves in the Owen plot - but they do not have any record. Our grandparents are at one end - Uncle Usery and Aunt Cora at the other end. In between are several graves, but we do not know how many nor which one is which. We do know that Uncle Robert, Aunt Laura, Ida Holder - and maybe one or two more. We think possible Aunt Gertrude - do you think so? Where is Aunt Flora buried? and Aunt Ellen?

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - date?

It is Oakwood Cemetery and this is a rough sketch of the Owen Plot

Our Grandparents)
L. A. Owen ()
Mrs. L. A. Owen)
Robert Owen
Laura Owen
Ida Woodhouse
Holder
Maybe another one or two
Aunt Cora
Owen, his wife
Uncle Usury
Owen

A small stone marks our Grandfather Owen's grave - and a small Knights of Pythias one for Uncle Usery's. We do not know which grave is which in between the end ones. That is which one for sure is Uncle Robert's or Aunt Laura's. Ida Holder is of course a sister to Cousin Ella, Nellie, etc.

The cemetery has no record of these graves or names. I have written time and again before Drexel visited the Plot. He is trying to find where Aunt Gertrude is buried - none of us know - but I would think Farmersville.

I'd like to put up one stone, a simple one with all the names on it - also dates of births and deaths - Drexel would help me with the expense. His grandfather Woodhouse is buried in Miss. but do not know near what town - he found his grave by digging for it.

If we can find Maggie Johnson Cutler, before it is too late - I think she would know something more about our family - at least where her mother Flora is buried, dates, etc. also Lizzie. Aunt Flora, Lizzie and Maggie stayed at our home for months, after the husband disappeared with the money from the sale of their farm. He was never heard from again. Aunt Flora died with a broken heart, don't know where the three went after they left our home, where they lived nor where she died. Maggie was so smart - she worked arithmetic all that summer and taught me to work long division. So, we worked together.
One time we visited at their home on the farm - wherever it was.

Do you remember us visiting at your home when we all were children? We had such a good time. Know it was on a farm, but where? At the time, we lived on a farm near Petty, not far from Honey Grove, Texas - 6 miles

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - date ?

I bought the book, "Russell County, Alabama in Retrospect" to see if I could find out anything about Wacauchie Valley, in Alabama where our grandparents Owen moved to from Georgia. It was and still is a rich valley land - it had one little postoffice called "Wauchaucie Valley. The whites made a treaty with the Indians by that name and the land was opened for settlers in 1832. People poured in from Georgia, North Carolina, and the other states. Russell Co. is in the extreme east part of Alabama with just the river between it and the Georgia Road. The old Federal Road is still there over which the immigrants came. And Fort Mitchell, the old Federal Fort is still there, right on the river.

My mother and two of the children before her were born in this Valley. I'm starting now in Georgia - the Owen and McLendon families (probably the most of them were born in Ga.) some came from N. Car. The Rutherfords are mentioned, also - and in Ala. there is a Station, called "Rutherford Station". Also a Rutherford County in North Carolina - the book mentions.

I work at the Library here all I can. Before Christmas, I found a name Robert Owen, who served in the War for Independence in Virginia. He had two sons, Robert and Jacob, who moved to Ga. - their names are given as serving in the War of 1812, along with a man named English and one named White. Drexel thinks we are descended from the Jacob Owen of Ga.

What does the F. stand for in Uncle Robert's name?

I found a Robert E. Owen. Initials are so confusing. If we only knew the full names - how that would help. And do wish that grandmother Owen had given the place of birth, when she was writing this paper I'm sending you a copy of.

Many of the McLendons married the Padens. The spelling is so confusing too. In the old countries Owen was spelled Owain. Paden spelled Paedon McLendon spelled with a C. sometimes. And the work that it takes to figure it all out. This is why we all need to keep true records of our own families with their names in full, not initials.

THE MCLENDON FAMILY

From Sallie G. Giberson

Parents and Sisters and Brothers of our Grandmother, Owen

Parents:
Joel McLendon, born Dec. 27, 1784
Sarah White McLendon, Born Aug. 20, 1793
They were married March 3, 1814

Children of Joel and Sarah McLendon:

1. Mary A. R. McLendon, born Dec. 24, 1814 - died Jan. 22, 1826 - age 12
2. William V. W. McLendon, born Dec. 24, 1816 - died July 17, 1871 - age 55
3. Elizabeth Ann McLendon, born Nov. 11, 1818,- died Dec. 30, 1889 - age She is our Grandmother
4. Synthia D. A. McLendon, born Jan. 31, 1822 - died Nov. 21, 1826 - age 4
5. Jacob (Dr. Jake) H. McLendon, born Oct. 13, 1824 - died
6. J. M. McLendon (also a Dr.) born, Aug. 27, 1827 - died
7. M. T. McLendon - born Dec. 31, 1829 - died Sept. 18, 1861 - age 32
8. Sarah A. McLendon, born June 7, 1832 - died
9. Mary McLendon, born Feb. 7, 1835 - died

Marriages of the McLendon children:

1. Elizabeth Ann McLendon married Lemuel Augustus Owen, Nov. 11, 1838 These are our grandparents
2. William V. W. McLendon married Emaliza Key, Nov. 17, 1839 His name is in the census of 1840 - Russell County, Ala.
3. Jacob H. McLendon married Amelia F. Paden (sometimes spelled Paedon) August 30, 1839. This is Dr. Jake McLendon, who lived on an adjoining farm to our grandparents in Choctaw Co., Miss.
4. Mary McLendon married F. B. Paden - Jan. 17, 1853
5. Dr. J. M. McLendon married Elen Mitchell, Sept. 1854
6. M. T. McLendon married Filphia Pope, July 7, 1861
7. Sarah Ann McLendon married T. M. English Feb. 8, 1872 - after his death she married O'Neal and lived near Paris, Texas. Our grand mother Owen died at her home, then was taken to Heney grove, Texas for burial.

OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - Jan. 6, 1955

The daughter and her husband built their home next door to Cordie; her name is Maurine Carter, Mrs. Frank Carter - he is in business there, owns it. They have two little girls - Bonnie 7 in the 2nd grade and Gay 3 years.

1. The oldest one of our family is Judge D. W. Glasscock - lives at Austin, Texas - they have a pretty home, too. All their children are married and they are alone. Oldest daughter teaches in the University of Texas, lives near them. Her husband is dead, she has one daughter 17 in the Univ. now. The middle daughter lives in Freeport, two adopted boys 9 yrs. old - her husband works for one of the big industries - the youngest daughter lives at Temple, Texas her husband is a physician at Scott & White Hospital - three children. The two sons follow the construction work.

2. Jim, the age Lemmie was or about - lives at McAllen, has worked for the City Tax Office for over 20 years. He has two children, wife dead. Son, Jim Jr. served in the War, is now with the El Paso Times paper - also writes for Magazines - they have 3 children. Nina, the daughter lives near Jim, at McAllen - her husband owns two canning plants - they have three little girls. Jim lives alone in his house.

3. Me, Sallie - I've spend my life in the schoolroom either teaching or going to some college or univ. My husband died in 1942 of a stroke- he was a brilliant man - but his health failed until he was unable to do anything - just one stroke after another until a severe one took him away. He left so many articles and books that he wrote. I have taught so long, over 40 years. We had no children.

Then let's work on the Owen family - I believe Drexel said two were born in Ga. - Gertrude and Robert - the remainder in Miss. I just have the birth dates of three.

They were about 2 years apart - seems like

Gertrude - 1839	Laura - 1844	Flora & Oscar 1848
Robert - 1842 or 3	Mary Eliz. 1846	Ellen 1852	Fred 1854

The Archives of Ala. sent me a long list of Owen's but the name Augustus does not check with our grandfather's Lemuel Augustus Owen. The S. is confusing. Our family had no S.

THE WAR RECORD OF ROBERT F. OWEN

WAR BETWEEN THE STATES - 1861-1865

Refers to Dr. McLendon and Tommy England.

SARAH O'NEAL

She was my grandmother Owen's sister. See your list of McLendon names. She married twice. First - T. W. England (died in Lamar Co. perhaps on farm referred to MDR) to Sarah Ann McLendon (I have tintype) (MDR) Feb. 8, 1872. There were several children.

The second time to _____ O'Neal near Paris, Texas.

There was a little P.O. named Faught a few miles from Paris. It was on land belonging to this man. (Write Johnson Title Co., Paris, Tex. MDR) You can find the names in the census of Lamar County - in the 89's and 90's. (All burned in Wash. D.C. MDR)

GLASSCOCK

From Mrs. Sallie G. Giberson - May 13, 1956

I knew my grand-father's family came from Tenn. to Ala. in or rather between 1833 and 1837. The 1850 census gave the names of his children and just the State - Tennessee. I had to go the long and hard route in order to find the Glasscocks in Tennessee. I started in the Eastern part, as they came "over the mountains" to take up the new lands offered settlers. I wrote every County Judge and Clerk in every County. Found a name here and there, but nothing familiar. Greene County was "chug full" of Glasscocks and some living there today. I got a list of names but nothing on my Line. Then I did the same with the southern counties, then began in the middle of the State.

The Archives very kindly told me about Spencer Glasscock living and trading lands there in Davidson County 1801 to 1809. Then Rutherford County was cut off from Davidson in 1803. Evidently this took Spencer's home into Rutherford County. He died there in 1821. Then the Archivist found two Deeds for Moses H. Glasscock in Rutherford County abd there were two in Murfreesboro. I have the copies of all four now. My trouble is in finding someone to do the research - workers in the offices do not do this work.

I have been paying a genealogist in Rowan County, N.C. to search the Court Minutes for information; I have all but one installment from him. Then he will be finished. I have quite a bit of facts about Peter Glasscock's sons, who went into Tennessee; this is the way I found Spencer who I am sure is my great grandfather.

Spencer went to Davidson County
William to Overton County - I received some Deeds from the Court House there. The grandson is still living, up in the 80's. I wrote him and he answered, has written a few letters since.
Charles went back to Farquer County, Va. I have names of his family. He married Clemmence Dulin.
James E. Do not know who this is, but he applied to adm. Spencer's Es. Peter Glasscock's Will of 1783 just names James no initial.
Peter Jr. was in Gibson County. Tenn. m. 1823 there.

Probably the majority of the 10 sons stayed in Rowan County. So far there has been no mention of M.H.G. as to when he was born and nothing in Rutherford County about his two marriages and the 6 children born there in Tenn.

I thought maybe Farquer County Virginia would yield some facts, sent you copy of what I had; nothing on our Line. There are several men named Peter Glasscock. The one with the Will in Rowan County, N.C. had 10 sons and 6 dau/ is the one in our family Line - no, mine - you come from Gregory. Peter m. twice - I need the name of the 1st wife, who would be Spencer's mother.

I need copies of the census of Farquer County Va., 1810 & 1820 Rowan Co. N. C. These would at least separate the Glasscock families and I'd know the difference of each. And I need the censuses of Davidson and Rutherford Counties, Tenn. 1820 and 1830 of each. They have to come out of Washington, D. C. As yet, have not found a person to go copy them. This is about all I need, and my father's line will be complete.

I'll send you what I found, references, dates, etc-- as soon as get the census records -- thought it best to be all together.

Right now, I am copying the North Carolina Records for you - may not get finished this week.

BELIEVE I told you about Eleanor Glasscock Thompson
"Rutledge"
Marshall, Virginia

Some Judge, who knows her, sent me her name,- says she has all the Glasscocks from the 1st Emigrant on to the present time - has worked over 30 years on the collection of Glasscock data. I wrote to her in January. She answered right away. Then I wrote again in March and have not heard a word from her. She probably has names of the wives of both Peter Glasscocks. Told her I'd pay her for the information. I'd like to know who she is, that is, her own Glasscock Line.

ELIZABETH ANN MCLENDON OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - Aug. 30, 1954

I have at last a picture or copy of the picture of my Grandmother, Elizabeth Ann McLendon Owen, and am sending you one. It is not extra good but probably is the best I can do. They wanted to tint it, etc. but I just took it "as is". Her pretty grey hair does not show up as I would like. I have combed it so many times, when a child. I have the pin she is wearing. She gave it to my mother and I in turn inherited it from her.

L. A. OWEN

I know the L. A. Owen family moved from Wacauchie Valley (Town) Runnels County, Alabama in 1847, because my mother was born here in 1846 and she said she was one year old when they moved to Mississippi. The census of both 1840 and 1850 should show that. I think Aunt Gertrude was born in Ga. then am not sure about Aunt Laura and Uncle Robert.

The Owen farm in Mississippi was located at the forks of two roads: one leading to Meridan the other to Hoenlinden, Mississippi. The adjoining farm was that of Jake McLendon, brother of Elizabeth Ann Mc.endon Owen. Marauding armies devastated the surrounding country— and did reach the McLendon farm but not the L. A. Owen's. Papers of the Masonic Lodge at Hoenlinden were destroyed by these Yankee armies. (Robert F. Owen was a Mason).

The Owen family all belonged to the Christian Church nearby called "The Old Field Church". L. A. Owen was a layman in this Church.

The Owen family lived on this farm until 1876 when they moved to a farm near Paris, Texas, Lamar County.

MCLENDON

From Sallie G. Giberson - Aug. 30, 1954

My chief object now, is to locate the McClendon cousins who live somewhere in Texas. D.W. will remember where, as he and Cousin Cora corresponded for long, long years. They had a very large farm but do not know the nearest town or their post office. I'll get him (D.W.) cornered soon as possible. Just imagine Cousin Cora has grandchildren and children somewhere in Texas. She would be in the 70's if living.

L. A. OWEN

From Sallie G. Giberson - Nov. 24, 1954

In looking through my Grandfather's book on Science he used in the Academy where he taught, I find his own name and that of W. B. Owen. Now, I'm puzzled as to who this Owen was?? The only brother that I know of was Cyrus Owen, who finally settled in Arkansas.

And now I remember too that Grandmother Owen had a sister living at a little place near Paris, named Faught or maybe Fought, not sure. We said "Aunt Sarah" and it seems to me her name was O'Neal; have written Cordie about this and will write Gertie and Anna. DW would know but he is in McAllen right now on business. Did you ever hear of the name? I remember this Aunt, (my great-aunt) writing my mother of how great a sin it was to have music in the Christian Church. My mother did not believe this. We often had a laugh about the things she would write. And grandmother died at her home then was taken to Honey Grove for burial.

Dear Drexel;

I have had these letters ready for a week or more--just didn't get them mailed. You can study them, and pick out the information you wish to compile.

Gertie and Anna both have a number of experiences that I am writing in my own scrapbook.

L.A. OWEN

In looking through my Grand-father's book on Science he used in the Academy where he taught, I find his own name and that of W.B. Owen. Now, I'm puzzled as to who this Owen was?? The only brother that I know of was Cyrus Owen, who finally settled in Ark.

Years ago, I joined the Alabama Historical Society, thinking that through this group, I might find some information about our Owen line. I have always thought that Thomas M. Owen was connected in some way--he was Director of Archives & History at Montgomery and was really the one who established the Department; sorted and compiled the material. See what this Lex S. Owens says about him--and I found an article in the Quarterly of Jan, I949 about him. He died in I920. I have written the wife, but doubt that she is interested in her husband's name. Note, too, the man who was born in Wacaughie Valley--I want to write him, and ask about the place.

Maybe this summer, I can make a trip to the Archives, to Seale, the Co-se seat, of Russell Co. and get out to this Valley, where my mother and two of the family was born. Am not sure, as yet, who came after Aunt Gertrude--Laura or Robert. Gertie says Robert.

The Director of the Dallas Museum of History, writes that the Honey Grove Signals will be available in January for use. I can go to Dallas, and do this research--provided they are the issues of the I880's and I890's. Am trying to complete the Owen sheet, as to dates of birth and deaths. From the census of Lamar Co. that you have of I880--Uncle Usery's birthdate would be I852--he died in I899, age 47. I need Robert's, Laura's, Flora and Oscar's, the twins.

Gertrude, Anna, and I are trying to locate Maggie Cutler, Aunt Flora's daughter--if knew the last mailing place, could write there and ask to be forwarded. This was the way I found Gertrude, I wrote to her last address in Kansas, and the letter was forwarded to her in Okla.

There is still much to be done, and I'll keep working. Do you have a genealogist in Richmond, Vir.?? Am glad you at least have found a beginning in Robert Owen--Robert is carried through several generations. What is this Media Research in Washington, DC? Trust I can get to our Lib. after the Thanksgiving Holidays.

Cordie is improving very slowly, but is up the greater part of the day. She had a close call, and we were so worried. All my Fall has been devoted to her--someone had to see about the home, office, etc--even though she had a 24 hr. nurse. This nurse will stay until Christmas. The heart is so tricky, we can't run the risk of Cordie being alone. (My machine does this, sorry).

Dear Cousin Drexel;;

I am enclosing records I received from Warrenton, Farquer Co. Va. I thought I might find the name of the wife of Peter Glasscock, b. I7I4. Also, the name of the Ist wife of Peter G. of Rowan Co. N. C. Will, I783.

And, also, this Spencer G. might have m. first in Farquer Co. Va as he was 30 yrs. old, when he m. Polly Enochs in Rowan Co. N.C. And I ned the birth date of my grand-father, Moses Herndon Glasscock--it should show up either in Davidson or Rutherford Co. Tenn.

You have many of these marriages mentioned in the list, I sent you--that Carstarphen sent me. But they may come handy for reference. Anyway, add them to collection.

I will get the records of Rowan Co. N.C. to you--soon as ca, Some days I can write without an error--then again I make many mistakes

So, far, I have not been able to find anyone, who will do research for me in Davidson and Rutherford Counties--where my Grand-father and family lived.

And the N.Census Dept says, "I'll have to have someone , there copy the censuses for me." There is one lady in the DAR Office, who does outside work(a lady here knows her, and told me of her) --so, I have written to her, asking her to get copies of the censuses, etc. for me. Maybe she will. Anyway, I'll keep trying.

Thanks for your help in every way.
As ever, Sallie G. Gibson.

Dear Cousin Drexel;

I have yours of Aug. 3Ist, with return of three letters that I had sent to you. I have written so many letters, and as yet, have veryfew answers. The Book I wrote about was not available--so I wrote the two ladies mentioned in the letter about the Archives. The Director is named Owen, no s , --yet, he has mentioned this. I know of only one brother of my Grand-father L. A. Owen--and his name is Cyrus.

I was delighted to learn the facts about my Aunt Sallie McLendon. I remember the large, white house, all the barns, the animals, the chickens, etc, but,of course,do not know about the ownership. It may have been rented. My father thought Aunt Sallie a very capable woman, she was running that big farm. Few women did things like this in those days. Do wish we could find out about Cora,the teacher, or her family, if married.

In regard to the two McLendon's--J.H. and J. M.--See the list of names I sent you, for dates of birth and marriages. Jake was born in I824, and J. M. in I827. Had the Womak's of Miss. kept up with Sarah's family??? NO Where in Miss. do they live?? MANTEE.

MCLENDON I'm trying to get the dates of birth of my grand-parents' family. No one in my family remembers. My letters to Gertie Paden (Klaus) Masters have never been returned--so feel that she received them. And please send me I DONT HAVE!
Maggie Cutler's address--she would know about her mother, Flora's, and Gertie would know about her mother's, Ellen. I think my mother, Mary Elizabeth, 3 CHILDREN BORN IN ALA - 1842-47 - ONE IN GA 1840 was the only one born in Ala. or else she would have mentioned it. The clippins from the Honey Grove Signal would, at least tell their ages, I feel sure. No word from the Denton College--but I wrote just at the close of the Summer Session--and there is some time in between this and Fall Term. May hear, later.

DW was at Uncle Usery's when he died of meningitis. We were in Angleton

In comparing the nmae in the Bible I have with the McLendon list--I believe it is the same as J.M. though the J. looks like a G.--they used so many flurshes of the pen, in that day. COUDD BE Sarah A-?

Evidently both J.H. and J. M. were physicians. Note the letter from J.M. to my Grandmother Eliz. Ann Owen. I'm getting some things together to send you, by registered mail.

DW sent me a copy of the letter he sent to you--he will recall a numoer of incidences, when he gets his mind on the subject. His daughter at Freeport told me he was writing down many incidents that happened during his span of life.

As a boy he was in Uncle Usery's office, and this is where he got his inspiration to become a lawyer. WAS THIS IN PARIS? HE WAS THERE AGE 26 IN 1850 CENSUS - WITH CORDE - 26.

Now for your letter of today--Sept. 3rd.

Your grand-father, V.G. Woodhouse's name is mentioned almost in every letter Uncle Robert F. Owen, wrote home to his family. Evidently both belonged to the same Masonic Lodge--Mother had UncleRobert's pin. The papers at Hoenlinden were stolen by the marauding Yankees. Robert and (V.G.W.) were both in the 24th Miss. Reg. Robert was in Company "B"--but he does not say which Company VG belonged to. WAS SURGEON OF B-CO Prisoners were exchanged now and then--not all were retained until the War closed. (See "The Rise and Fall of the Confederacy", written by Jefferson Davis)

I don't think the Camp Douglas you mention is Chicago is the one Uncle R. was in. He walked home, after being exchanged, catching a ride now and then from some farmer. The Owen family had watchers every day and part of the night watching for him. Finally one of the girls came in and remarked that she saw a " dirty, ragged soldier " coming down the Road and that he looked like Robert. Grandmother Owen was so overcome with emotion that she left the room, before he came into the house. His feet were so swollen that he could hardly walk, at all. As soon as she could get control of herself, Grandmother came in. Then he told of his exchange and the long walk home. I am always pleased of his trust in God.

DONT THINK THERE WOULD BE MORE THAN ONE OF SAME NAME

I DIDNT ASK FOR ROBT - BUT WILL

Didn't you get copies of the records of both Robert and V.G. from Washington?

All the Officers were killed at the bloody Battle of Franklin, and Uncle Robert jumped upon the breastworks and commanded the Troops, until he was taken prisoner--this was his last Battle. V.G. W. might have been in prison--but R. must have kept up with him, all along. In several letters he mentioned "that they were looking for pease." That sentence was all he said "Glad Dock has got home." NO OFFICERS IN CAMP DOUGLAS V.G. WAS OFFICER

I'll have the page phostated about Grand-father Owen "leaving home and joining the Militia"--Robert was so worried because he thought there was no one to care for his mother & family--and also said L.A. was not physically able. L.A. OWEN

No, I do not know where the Academy was located--L.A. Owen taught one yr. during the War--My mother did, too, and one after the War closed. I have the Science Text Book, L.A. Owen used in his classes. He evidently was no in the service long--as you will see from the letter, I'm sending you to read and return. IS HIS SIGNATURE IN IT

After the War, Aunt Laura attended an Academy at Jackson to study and get a certificate to teach Arithmetic. Some of the men by planters tried to dissuade L.A.--said "that Math. was too mannish for ladies to teach." But Grand-father said "the day would come when ladies would teach Math. along with other subjects." Anyway, she succeeded. My Mother always said "Aunt Laura was the smartest of all the girls."

Then they were all shocked one day, when Grand-father came in andtold Grand-mother that she and all the girls must get rid of hoop-skirts."He had been in Town (don't know which one) and no lady had on hoop-skirts. So the hoops were packed away.They orought some to Texas.

Thanks for the data-about L.A. Owen's service. He was not in very long, from Uncle Robert's letter. He was in service before R. got the word from the family. My Mother always said "he was with the Home Guards." Don't know just what this meant, because R. said "Malitia." See letter, when it arrives.

Am sending this in answer to yours on ahead of the next one containing items. You received Grand-mother Owen's picture??

No more at this time,
Your Cousin,
Lucia K. Patterson

Dear Cousin Drexel:

This is to acknowledge the receipt of both your letters, and the envelope came yesterday. Thank you for all. Am sorry you did not get any information from Ira Thompson. Since he worked at the Courthouse there so long, I thought he might direct you, to the Bureau of Vital Statistics there at the Courthouse Then, too, there should be a Cemetery Association in Olney Grove. They should have records of the names, dates, etc. The last funeral I rememoer attending before we moved to Angleton, was that of my Grandmother Owen--this was December 31, --?---- , don't know the year--she was buried from the Christian Church; same Church where your parents were married, I was there on this occasion, too.

Then will you tell me where your parents are buried?

Also, Nellie and her husband (he may be living).

Some members are buried at Forest Hill Cemetery near Petty, Texas. My Grandmother Sophia Margaret Glasscock is there,--she has a stone marker; my parents lost a child in infancy, named Oscar Owen Glasscock, older than I--there is a stone marker for him, too. There must be several more. I barely remember this Grandmother. She grieved always for the son lost in the War between the States, and often called his name in her sleep.

I will begin work immediately on the blanks--may have to have help on the Chart. The "Family Record" is clear enough. So, please don't get impatient. I am so proud to have the two Charts, and can hook on direct to the McClendon line. I have a special friend who is Regent of the Alexander Love Chap.

MRS. SALLIE G. GIBERSON

HOUSTON . TEXAS

R, of this city. She is always insisting that I join with her. Maybe I can now, with your help, satisfy their demands--they are strick, as you well know. After I get the record, I want my sister's daughter, Maurine Carter--you met her at Freeport--to join the Chapter, at Angleton.

I have gone all the pictures I have, and I don't think I have any that will be of any value to you--or that you do not have already. I have one, Nellie with a little boy and I don't think it is you--must be Lowell. Then, I have one of Lila and Nellie togetner, small, just their heads & shoulders--do you have this one? Grandmother Owen's is broken into. I asked about having it reclaimed, and they said it would cost about $40, as it would have to be done by hand. You had Aunt Flora, Aunt Ellen, and Doss Holder. And I had Uncles Fred & Ursery--and Dale when he was a boy.

What is Gertie Paden Klaas' address?? I corresponded with her for a long time after my mother's death. And also Maggie Cutler. Any addresses of the family that you have, I would be glad to receive. They may have some dates that I don't.

A squall on the Gulf brought us heavy rains--hot again today though. My sister was here for two days. She isn't as well as she was before her major operation. Some days she works too hard.

Write me anytime, about anything.

Thanking you again for these records,

As ever,
Your Cousin,

Sallie G. Giberson

Am sorry you did not get any information from Ira Thompson. Since he worked at the Courthouse there so long, I thought he might direct you to the Bureau of Vital Statistics there at the Courthouse. Then too there should be a Cemetery Association in Honey Grove. They should have records of the names, dates, etc. The last funeral I remember attending before we moved to Angleton, was that of my Grandmother Owen -- this was December 31,--------; don't know the year, she was buried from the Christian Church; same Church where your parents were married, I was there on this occasion too.

SARAH GERTRUDE WOODHOUSE

From "Gertrude" Watonga, Okla. - 10/25/54

I may have written this to you before, but the first dead person I ever saw was Aunt Gertrude. It made quite an impression on me. We lived just a short distance from them. I remember taking food to her while she was ill. I took greens and hot corn bread a lot. I remember too the afternoon of her funeral. We were left with someone else and Mother was gone all afternoon. I feel sure she must have been buried near Ida. Times were so hard at that time. They may have buried her in Farmersville or McKiney. We didn't live very far from either town.

I know so little about Aunt Flori and family. They visited us at Xmas time when we were living in Collin Co. just a little while after Aunt Gertrude died. In the following spring , the year Ora and Owen were born we moved to another county. While we were there Uncle Johnson and the two girls came to our house. Their mother has just passed away. They stayed all spring. We loved Maggie; I was small but I felt sorry for Lizzie because she had such a temper she didn't make friends like Maggie. She used to cry a lot.

Yes, I remember your visit. Cordia and I played together and ate coffee under the house. Aunt Mary gave each of us a pretty painted tin cup. We didn't get many toys in those days and the cups were wonderful.

We were living four miles from Farmersville in Collin.Co. The same place we lived when Aunt Gertrude died. It was a good black land farm. I don't know whether my father built the little three roomed house or not but I think it was on our farm. He helped her move there. The girls and Dale picked cotton for us and Aunt Gertrude said their only future was for them to be teachers. Mother said times were so hard those days the girls would have to wear the same dresses and just wash them out at night.

They were all teachers but Nellie. Dale taught a year or two before he died.

Dear Sallie:

I have been waiting on Ora to write, as I feel she can do a much better job on giving our family history than I, but she has five children to write to, none of them live around here and she is busy most of the time. So I went wait longer. Yes the letter you wrote me at Waldron was received. I have enjoyed all your letters, especially your last one telling all about your family.

I know Aunt May must have been very proud of those fine record you all have made.

I remember reading a partly written letter of Mothers to your Mom. She was describing her children. Said they are more like the Padens. Are very orthodox in their church beliefs. Mother was very meek, a little too much so I sometimes think as we have too much of an inferiority complex as it is. She visited me just after Vivian was born. I was so overjoyed over my little girl. I said I am going to make a great musician out of her. She said you will find that she will determine that, for children seldom go farther than their parents. It seems to me at the time she was throwing cold water on my plans.

Since, that I have found her words very true. She was sweet andgood, I just wish I could be more like her in patience and understanding.

I don't know where Drexel's wife is from.

Yes, the boy he spoke of is his step son. She was married before, I don't know what his name is. Lowel, his brother, is married and has two children if my memory serves me right, (I will check on this.) He is in business with Drexel. His hobby is sports. He lives in Chicago. 'his children are adopted).

Ora has just informed me that the step son was in Korea last summer he was a sargent. Ora has been corresponding with him for two or three years, but his letters are always so brief and business like. He never tells us anything about his family in the letters.

Our folks are all Democrats, he is rank Republician. The men were all seated around the dining table and the subject was politics. He was criticzing the Democratic party. The men were firing all kinds of questions at him. One was "Didn't you make all your money under the Democratic Party" he said, "Yes." When I came home from world ware I I have twenty dollars in my pocket. I went to work with Chicago Fence & Equipment Company and this is how I made my money. He and Lowel own that Company now. Last fall Vivian happened to be seated next to a gentleman from Chicago (she and Art go to races at Hot Springs Ark) She ask him if he knew a Rutherford there, he said, "Drexel Rutherford?" and she said "Yes." He belongs to the big money class, was he reply.

Drexel's wife does all her home work. Said she had rather do it than to bother with a maid. I learned that she spends much of her time on charity. He said he tried to trace his father's people but ran into a snag. He didn't explain. Do you know anything about him. The last I heard he was a Methodist minister. I have no idea where Margie Culter was born. I amy have written this to you before, but the first dead person I ever saw was Aunt Gertrude. It ~~made~~ quite made an impression on me.

Anna knows a lot more about your Cousin Fannie and family than I do. She and Mother visited them in 1907 or 8. If you want any details on her family she can give it to you. Anna Masters lives in Beaverton Oregon, 1245 Watson. He works for an oil company. They are great church workers. He is an Elder in the Christian church. She teaches the Ladies Class, plays the piano part-time, and sings in the choir. The church is their whole life. Her first husband is dead, died 1944, Jack Maby who is the father of her children. Anna has three married children, they all live in the state of Oregan. Boyd has a garage and sells cars. He lives at Seaside has one 17 year old girl Rita Ann. Pete lives at Hillsberry. A daughter 18, a boy 7. Pete has worked for the Orgonian Paper for 15 years. Helen lives at Tight, 4 miles from Anna, they have a boy Ricky 10 months He (Don) works for the Orgonian too. John, who died in 1943 has a girl who lives in Beaventon, Oregan, Thelma has one child Allen 15, Ed is a farmer and is a salesman.

Drexel, John's son has a girl 2. He lives in Canton and farms his mothers place. She lives on the farm alone. Owen and Ora are twins as you know. Owen has five children. He owns a hotel in Canton, Oklahoma. Virgil has garage in Los Angles, California. He has 2 teenage girls one boy 8. They are all great church workers. Jim has 2 girls 11 and 3. He is a car salesman lives in Salem Oregan.

Bob is married but I don't know where he works. He is in Los Angles. Glen lives in Los Angeles has three small children . He is studying for the ministry (Bantist)

Ora and Dave live with me. They have 5 smart children. Gene works for the North American Air Line. They have 3 children, Karan 5, Steve 2, Davy 4 months and Betty and Bonnie are twins.

Betty lives in Tulsa.George works for the South Chester Tool Co. They have a baby girl 2 months. Cherie Deniece.

Bonnie married a Watonga boy. He is just back from Korea. They are living in Norman, Okla. He is finishing his college work.

Ora has two very sweet step children. They are older than her children. Helen, Petty, John lives in Longview, Texas. She has 2 very talented children. Louie, her husband has been with the Amerada Oil Co. for 20 years. Melvern, Daves son, is with this same Co. and has been with them 20 years. He has 3 boys, lives in Tiago North Dakota. We have lots of company when they have their reunions. I have been married 3 times and out lived all my husbands.

I have one girl, Vivian by my first husband. I have told you about her. I have a step son just 2 months older than Vivian. Vivian has 2 boys. C. J. was a marine and went through a lot of hard battles. He farms Arts and Vivian's land. They have a section. Terry is in the service . He is in Germany has been there 3½ years. Maggie Davis our oldest sister has 5 children. She died at the age of 35. Milton was only 19 months old. Ed. tried for a while to keep the children together. He lost his farm and every thing. Then had to look for work, it was hard to find. So he sent the children to Mother & Dad. He dissapeared and we never have heard from him. He had a brilliant mind butvery little education. Mother kept Milton till she passed away. He was about 6 or 7.

Milton stayed with one most of the time. I could write for hours about them, but must finish this letter. Thelma the oldest, is married to one of the head men of th Bell Telephone Company at Bartlesville. They have a lovely home. She has two children. Robert is in O.U. He attended Phillips two years, then was inthe service three years. Now he is finishing his school. Joanne 16, is a Junior.

Ethel's husband works or did work in Los Almos. She has 2 girls both married. (Leo her husband, has cancer and I plan to go out there next week for a short visit, three or four days.) Orveta has 2 boys and lives in Los Alamos. Ruth lives in St. Louis. He is in business making some kind of machine. I don't know what. They have 2 boys and are well fixed. Milton lives in Medicine Lodge, Kansas. Runs a Dairy Ice Cream Station. He has 2 boys, 11 and 9, a girl 7.

I repeated myself so had to cut the page short. I am sending you a letter written by your Mother to mine. Thought you might want to keep it. I wish I had kept some of the letters she wrote me.. I am also inclosing a check for "Dreams of an Empire" We all want to read your book. Do you consider this one your best?

Do you know very much about Henry Owen? Uncle Usery's only son who lived in Dallas or Fort Worth and had large holdings in one of the largest dry good stores in the town? He was my age. Sorry I haven't the faintest idea where Maggie Cutler lived. Seems to me it was out West somewhere. Mother and Father died about a month apart. I think she wanted it this way. She was born in 1854 and died in 1929. I will make you a record soon of births and deaths of our family.

Ora will help us on the Owen record. Ora and I are both deeply interested in the church and seldom miss a service. I am busy all the time.

So many of our elderly ladies are sick and lonely. There is plenty for uf all to do. I have an old car I bought from the farm. I almost live in it. Thank you for your good letter and I want to help you all I can in this record. Dont hesitate toask all the questions, you want to.

With love.

Gertrude

Family Traditions

A case History of an Amateur Genealogist 1st page38 in Arkansas Historical quartely- Sprint of 1951. Arkansas Historical Society

Some one said " when I begin to study these family traditions and compare with the county records, I got my first surprise!

I have had several many other surprises and soon learned that oral traditions always have a nucleus fact, but can grow in the telling.

Another Party Said.

"These oral family traditions may lead you to where data may be found. In many cases I find them pure fabrication with no facts to Prove the assertation."

PART 1

The Romance of the Great Charter

Remarks of John [illegible] before

The National Society [illegible]
Meeting Around the Original Magna Charta
In the British Pavilion, New York World's Fair, October 10, 1939
A portion of this message was broadcast over the radio from coast to coast

THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING PEOPLE was born free. It never had to purchase freedom from anyone, although it has time and again been faced by the necessity of keeping a tyrant from invading its freedom. Such a tryent was was King John, and Magna Charta was the price he paid for his arrogance and greed.

The story of Magna Charta is a Romance. A Romance in its highest sen scence is defined to be a blending of the heroic, the marvelous and the mysterious, and used in this sence, the Romance exactly describes what I would say aboutthis piece of parchment, around which we are gathering today

The story of Magna Charta is indeed a Romance; it is a blending of the heoric, the marvelous and the mysterious, the full significance of which only the imagination can grasp. It is wonderful in its history. It transcends the ordinary. Hence it is a Romance. But who were the heroes? And what was the marvelous achievements?

In case wehave forgotten our English history, let us be reminded that King John was a horrid person, an arbitrary and mercenary ruler, who threw people into dungeons at the drop of a had.He married off wards of the Crown, young widows and pretty girls, to foreign adventurers and then collected a nice percentage of the lord'sfortunes from their husbands. He had a tiresome habit of forcing the peasants to build bridges over streams he might wish to cross while hunting , and at one time he made the whole of England his own private game preserve, so that none of the starving peasantry could kill even a rabbit for supper. He greatly increased the royal taxes and replenished his exchequer with the confiscated property of the clergy While " a King can do no wrong" he certainly can make mistakes

While brave Richard theLion Hearted was leading a crusade to the walls of Jeresalem, John vainly tried to upsetthe Crown, declaring falsely that King Richard dead. Once when fighting in France, King Jonn entertained his foes at dinner, then treacherously murdered them all and took their fortress and, when some years later Richard died.John indeed seized the throne, although Arthur, the son of his brotner Geoffrey, was the rightful heir. Prince Arthur, aged 12, after a time of imprisonment was stabbed, presumably by John. Such treacherous success however, did not last long.

Shortly after John became King, in 1199, he quarreled with the Pope who promptly laid an interdict upon his Kingdom, prohibiting services in all the Churches and the administration of the sacraments. The Church bells were not rung. The dead were refused Christian burial. He then excommunicated all England. This lasted over six years, till it was lifted in June 1213, duringwhich time no one had been rightly married, or buried and few baptized. Pope Innocent III found Johnhard to control, for he was always forgetting the "divine authority" of the Church

Then the Pope deposed John, proclaimed him no longer King, and set King Philip of France to war against him. To checkmate Philip's invasion John , ignoring the deposition, made a gift to the Pope of all of allthe realm, crown and revenue by written indenture datedmonday 13 May 1213. But John at once received the crown back as the Pope's tenant and vassel, at a ferm or annuel rental of a thousand marks for the whole Kingdom, 700 for England and 300 for Ireland, payable semi- annually in advance to Master Pandulf the Pope's Delagate. The Pope then must protect John against Philip and instructs Philip to desist but ignoring the pope, Philip fights on

In writing the historicak play " King John" it is rather remarkable that Shakespespeare omitted, perhaps intentionally, to make any allusion whatever to the greatest event of King John's reign, theprocuring from him the grant of Magna Charta. But the same writer, in the play " Henry VIII", also forbore mentioning any of the unpleasent features oh that King's personalcharacter. Nor did he mention that great event of his reign, the afformation. However, the "King John" play has muchto do with other affairs of the realm in which our Barons were concerned, and this introduced as character, inthe play, seaeral of the prominent men of England and of France. Strange to say , only one of them, Roger Bigod, the Earl of Norfolk and Suffolk, was on the side of the Barons when they contended with King John for the Great Charta. The Earl has but a small part in the play. He came on andwent off in four scenes and spoke only fifty words, and they never become a quotation from Shakespeare.

Instead, the dramatist could have better made an interesting farce, with amusing situations if he had more largely portrayed the state of public affairs in England. Through this act of surrender of his crown to the Pope, John brought about a remarkable condition in his realm, for thereupon the bond of feudalism in England was broken and he was Feudally extinct, when all feudal obligations to him ceased, and the Baronage die with him. Yet he did this with the consent of sixteen Earls, and ten, Barons, which may be understood as done, if with at protest, as it may have been viewed as a matter of political necessity, for the act protected England from threatened French invasion, since it made England taboo, it being now "Church property "., and the French , being faithful to the Church, dare not trespass. And scheme of defence and protection obtained for 150 years

But what should most interest us, descendants of many of them Barons affected by John's act, is that the Barons did not homage for their notdo fees to the new lord paramount, the Pope, and hence, did not receive from him a renewal, by letters patent, of the Baronies. On the contrary the Pope, as the need of the fee, excommunicated them.

Under the condition , the Barons were only yeomen, of freeholders , or copy-holders of King John, now he freeholder of the Pope, and therefore, when the Barons met at Runnemede, they were outlaws against the Pope, the Lord paramount, and the Popeis freeholder, John . Therefore, these these yeomans, earstwhile Barons of the realm, being now only what sub-tenants, could not legislate, if that is xxx they did , as Barons, and the Magna Charta was without life or force and wholly invalid.

The Baronage , thus broken in 1213 (as feudal law was concerned, and and it was still the supreme system) so remained for 150 years, while ent ment was paid annually to the Pope. The famous"Chronicles" of the Monk, Matthew of Westminster(in printed Volume II, page 116) gives the full text of the Kings surrender to the Pope, and tells of John's reception of the realm as a freeholder,the vassal Feudatory of the Church of Rome, witnessed on Ascension, 15 May 1213 by prominent Englishmen. When their peculiar status after the surrender was fully recognized by the Barons they wished to know where they actually stood, and Magna Charta was in part to assure them , and it may be seen that in the introduction our Barons wrote themselves as " liberis homin ibus hominib us Regni nostri," the freeman of the kingdom. But they really were then only sub-tenants of John, the tenant in chief.

It is interesting to note the Nobles, ever ready to follow John's banner against any foe of England, now refused to fight for him him abroad and because of this refusal,John's tyranny at home knew no bounds. At the battle of Bouvines on Sunday, 27 July 1214, John being utterly defeated, never again attempted to regain his Norman provinces.

For many years, the wretched people had been most unjustly oppressed first the were despoiled of their possessions, then murdered. Those who had property lost it by heavy taxes and unjust decrees, Justice Justice was bought and sold; an heir and his lands were disposed of to the highest bidder; permission to marry had to be purchased from the King; andthe monarch demanded what taxes he thought fit to levy. All this reached its climax in the reign of John, a prince" utterly contemptible for his folly." We recall in particularly his infamious c conduce in Sherwood Forest toward Maid(ragell) Marion, Baron FitzWalter's daughter, whom he despoiled and caused to be poisoned. When to his exactions he added the debaucnery of his Nobles' wives and daughters the storm bursts

And a part of that storm broke on the walls of Colchester Castle When the Barons learned that the King was reaisin forces for their repression, they each understood the defence of a definate district of the country, in persuit of which obligation it fell to the lot of Saire de de Quincey, the first Earl of Winchester to attact the Castle of Colchester. For John had had the forethought to dismiss the custdian of that fortress and give it into the charge of aFleming upon whose faithfulnes he could rely, besides sending from London a good supply of Military engines and engineers. Notwithstanding that preparation, the Castle seems to have fallen an easy prey to de Quincey, who, however, was in turn attacked by the seige train which had be n so successfulkx in reducing Rochester Castle. The defence was stubborn, so stubborn that John himself came to direct the opperations; but de Quincey held out for nearly two months, and then seems to have escaped safely to France.

As we conte,plate the long struggle and the dramatic circumstances in which Magna Charta was secured, we instantlyrecall Stephen Langton, one of the noblest men of his time, a wise and learned ecclesiastic, who seemed specially raised up by Heaven to oppose and subdue the King. An English Cardinal was Stephen Langton, Archbishop of Canterbury, a true English Patriot for all that was appointed by a foreign Pope without consultation of the English Church. He MAXassembled the Barons in conference at the Abbey at Saint Edmunds-Bury to devise means to resist the imposition the importitions of King John. And here John reluctantly met them on Tuesday, 4 Nov. 1214, but the Barons got nothing from him except his asserance that he most certainly expected them to pay the was tax he had levied. Accordingto Mathew of westminster, after the King left the Abbey, the Barons, declaring they had no faith in John's promises, were called to order by Stephen Langton. One by one they took a solom oath on the High Alter that they would stand united and not relinquish their efforts until they would compel the King to confirm their liberties or they would make war against him to the death

A rough draft containing the principal items they desired had beeq prepered and this was submitted and approved by formal proceedings. John must consent to its proposalsand confirm them by his seal or take the consequences. When shown to the king, his only reply was that as it was a great and dificult thing which they asked, he musthave more time for its consideration. Roger of Wendover tells us that when John saw the articles he swore by "Jod'teetn," his favorite oath, that h he would never agree to such demands or any part of them.

To furtner delay the issue,tne resourceful John, just before Easter 1215, announced that he was preparing for the Holy Crusade, whemx of course he would have it understood that he could not be disturbed for many months with even the matter of a Charter. During all this time there was generally confusion throughout all England. The Barons had closed all courts.No man was even allowed to serve a writ in the Kings name. John was deceived by his apparent successes. He underestimated the Powers arrayed against nim. The struggle was inevitaule; to the modern mind the chief marvel is that it was so long delayed. The causes which led to the charter of English liberties were many, but the all had their root in the intolerable tyranny of the Norman kings.

Easter day, 19 April 1215arrived and the Barons, whoalways kept their engagements, asembled according to their promise at Stamford in Lincolnshire, with a well-equipped army of more than two thousand knights. But at the place was of not of his own selection John found it not convenient to meet them and sent word that he would that he would await their coming at Oxford. But upon learning of their number, John decided not to attend there in person, sending instead two of his representatives Stephen Langton and William Marshall, Earl of Pembroke, who received the articles with the understanding that i the King tstill refused, the Barons would force his lingering consent by seizing his fortresses. When John received the Baron's Articles he replied, " They as well ask for my Kingdom," completely ignoring the fact that he had already surrendered his Crown to the Pope. But indeed the only alternative was the loss of his Kingdom.

On Tuesday, 5 May 1215, the Barons chose Robert Fitz"Walter their leader, with the title of " MarshalX of the rmy of God and Holy Church." Theirs was a holy crusade against John to recover the liberties their fathers Forefatners had enjoyed and to restore the good old customs violated by a base and Inovating King

The towns of Exeter and Lincoln soon surrendered to the Baronial Army. John, now at Windsor Castle, was informed that they were preparing to besiege the Castle and Tower of London, his strongest fortress, where they arrived Sunday, 24, May 1215. Of the Peers who had been neutral or faithful to the King, very few continued to side with him. Virtually powerless, with busines of all kinds at a standstill, and with nearly hi his whole Baronage, and the majority of his subjects of all degrees in arms in arms against him, he seemed to have decided to surrender, at least for the time being. He finally called his Barons to a conference. They said,"Then let the day be the 15th of June and the place Runnemede Rennemede is within sight of Windsor Castle and of St.George(s Chapel, the shrine of the Kingdom nights of the Garter, built by King Towing Edward III about 1344. The Towpath on the Surrey bank skirtingthe field of Runnemede, gives a beautiful five-mile ramble from Windsor to Staines. For ages the meado lled Runnemede has been Crownlan and rented for pasturage, a por ssion, reserved only for a recetract where the Egham races were run each year on a two-miled tract in Aug. and Sept/, and this has been the only ~~duel~~(annual) celebration on the historical field; but the events of 1215 are called by the racing for the "Magna Charta," the " Runnemede." and the "King John" stakes.

On the Bachet Road there is an old farm House, known as King John's Hunting Lodge, but having no more connection with King John~~xxxxxxx~~ than has the so-called Magna Charta Island, which lies off Wraysbury. At Ankerwyke House near Wraysbury still stands an immence yew tree, said to be older than the Magna Charta.

Of this wonder, William Thomas Fitzgerald, in 1807, wrote some lines beginning;

"What scenes have pass'd since first this ancient yew
In all the strength of youthful beauty grew
Here patriot Barons might have musing stood,
And plannédthe Charter for their countrie's good.
And here, perhaps, from Runemede retir'd
The naughty John, with secret vengence fired....."

Did King John ride out daily on horseback from Windsor Castle? or did he travel four or five miles to the scene ~~of~~ by boat ? If we follow the latter route today, we pass under the turrets of the Royal Castle, and the grounds of Eton College, and drift in the shade of the huge riverside trees in Windsor Park. Navigation shall be free, says the Charter. A quaint thought that the young people nowsplashing row round the bend of the river in bathing costumes or boating in summer dresses, should have a clause to themselves in Magna Charta. Presently we come to Runnemede, a long stretch of green meadow without hedges or fences, lying along the South bank at a curve in the River Thames, about thirty miles west of London. It is indeed a tranquil English scene. In the distance one can see a village and hear the tinkling of the Cowbells.

At the tiny Norman church in the hmlet of Egham, Stephen Langton a the fearless Archbishop of Canterbury, gathered the Barons on June day in 1215 to pray for strength to humble the arrogant King John. Today in the Church at Egham may be seen the set of Barons' shields and plaques presented to ly by The National Society Magna Charta Dames.

When it wasproposed, a few years ago, to sell the field of Runnemede to the highest bidder, a great outcry was made. The former Cara Rogers, now now Fairhaven, a member of the Magna Charta Dames, an American girl, bought and presented to the British people the field of Runnemede as a memorial to her husband to be kept for all time as a sacred, historic spot.

On the day appointed, Trinity Monday, the 15th of June, 1215, King John met his Barons on the field of Runnemede, the ancient meadow of council. His followers were few because John's injustices and selfishness had increased his unpopularity beyon all bounds. With him were but a score of persons, most of whom dispised him and were his advisers only in form Encamped on the field of Runnemede more than two thousand Knights and Barons in arms awaited his coming.

We are told the Barons could at this time have demanded even more from the King John, for he now was in no position to refuse them anything they asked, but they seem from all that can be learned of them to have been an honorable set of men bent on having only what was just and right and they simply remained firm to their first demands and asked no more.

The Barons had their demands carefully written on parchment. These John had seen seven months before. From what we know of John's character he may have argued stubbornly for a time but at all events he now knew that he was there to yeild, and that he was opposed by overwhelming forge and so

King John ~~sur~~

KING JOHN SURRENDERED

Before the day passed he affixed his seal to the original but prelimiary draft known as the "Articles of the Barons The immediate forerunner of Magna Charta, these forty-nine articles contained the main principles of the Charta. The King has now promised to rule according to law. The King must keep the law and if he will not he may now be compelled to do so.

The undoubted original of the preliminary rough ~~max~~ draft of Magna Charta, with a fragment of King John's seal in brown wax attached, may still be seen preserved in the British Museum. This supresumely interesting original had been retained in the possession of King John. It was later captured by the Dauphin of France, reclaimed by the Protector, William Marshall, then Bishop Laud and later Dr. Warner had it, and thereafter in came into the more appreciative hands of Bishop Gilbert Burnet. the distinguished historian, an ancestor of Mrs. S. Fahs Smith This priceless manuscript was later(pages 475.600) owned by that Bishop&executor, whose daughter sold it, with proof of this chain of ownership, to the Earl of Stanhope, and he, in 1769, presented it to the British Museum, where this,the original prelimary draft, known as the " Forty-nine articles of the Barons," the forerunner of Magna Charta may now be seen

MAGNA CHARTER

The exact terms of the Charter itself were decided and engrossed during four subsequent days of negotiation, and it was on the 19th that the great seal was affixed to all copies. Doubtless, twenty-five duplicate originals were made, perhaps one for each of the Sureties. These were all dated back to the 15th of June, and duly sealed by the King. John didn't sign any of them with his autograph. As a matter of fact,he could neither read nor write, nor could the Barons, nor Knights, except a few, of whom was the noted Richard de Hilpin, the scholar/ He was the Secretary and adviser of Ivo de Talboys, Baron of Kendal, whom he accompanied to Runnemede. No one signed Magna Charta, it wasn't necessary as at common law sealing was sufficient to authenticate any formal document.

No doubt each of the twenty-five Surety Barons carried a copy home and had it read at the principal crossroads by order of the King, where the people swore by uplifted hand to support the Surety in their determination to make the King keep all his promises

The obligations written in the Charter constitute one of the very examples of a company surety bond.

The first Magna Charta commemoration took place in the year 1215 when, by command of their Marshall, Robert, Lord FitzWalter, a great Tournamentin celebration of the granting in the celebration of the granting of the Charter and the " Conclusion of peace betwixt the Kinge and his Barons" was held" Near London in Staines Wood and at the town of Hounslow, on Monday, 29th June" 1215. And today, it is supremely fitting that such a group as the Magna Charta Dames should meet in this place aroundthis original Parchment to continue in that fraternity, comradeship, and responsibility for others contemplated by the Charter, and to promote which this Society of Descendants has its reason for being

Each year since 1909 the Magna Charta Dames have held celebrations in Commemoration of this important event. As descendants they [illegible] accomplished by their Magna

The one before us is the most perfect of the four originals surviving and is known as the Lincoln copy. It has been (Lincoln) graciouslylent it by ots owners, the Dean and Chapter of the Lincoln Cathedral, and so far as we know, has been kept there since 1215. Probably Hugh, Bishop of Lincoln, brought it straight hoge from Runnemede after the sealing. Naturally, the Dean and Chapter have taken the most elaborate measures to preserve and protect their priceles treasure.

The whole Charter is as you see written on a singlepiece of(page 35) sheepskin measuring 17½x 18 inches. It is held betweentwe shoots of heavy plate glass, and the bronze frame has been so fastened togather that only the personwho knows the secret of the screws can open it. It is indeed a priceless parchment, b.tthe unseen benefits which it has brought to mankind are of even greater value. We have heard it stated ongood autority at the close of the Worlds Fair, this original Magna Charta will be placed for safe keeping in the Library of Congress at Washington.

If you understand medieval Latin and can intepret all the little quirks and flourishes by which the penman abreviated his words, you will have no difficulty at all in reading Magna Charta. What kind of ink was used? What it made from nut galls? Or was it cuttlefish ink? The cuttlefish Or Squid as you know is provided with a sac of black fluid to throw out and cloud the water enabling him to escape from his pursuers. What a contrast there is between the clear unfading lettering more than seven hundred years old , and the faded endorsement you see on its margin made only 133 years ago.

Did John soon repent of his act? Did he think better of his bargain? Edmund Burke says of John that, without questioning in any partthe terms of a treaty which he intended to observe in none, he agreed to everything

Charta might be more widely known and better understood.

We Have supposed that at least twenty-five duplicate originals were made. Four original sealed copies of Magna Charta survive The two in the British Museum were acquired with the library of that omnivorous collect-Or of manuscript, Sir Robert Cotton. It is said that for a few shillings he recovered one of them from a tailor when he was about to cut it into strips for measures. The other, found in Dover Castle, was later much damaged by a fire at the Cottonian(Salisbury) Library over two centuries ago. The third copy is at Salisbury Cathedral where no doubt it has always been kept.

John by the grace of God King of England Lord of Ireland Duke of Normandy and Aquintance and Count Anjou to all his faithfull subjects greeting know ye that we by this our present Charter have confirmed for us and our heirs forever No freeman shall be seized or imprisoned or diffeifed or outlawed or banished or in any way destroyed norwill we go uponhim nor will we send upon him unless by free lawful judgement of his peers or by the law of the land to no one will we tell to no one will we deny or delay right of justice Given by our hand in the Meader which is called Runnemede between Windsor and Steines this fifteenth day of June in the seventeenth year of our Reign the Barons thought fit to ask, hoping that the exorbitance of their demands would justify in the eyes of the world the breach of all his promises. as a matter of fact, Jonndid not keep his pledges made in Magna Charta and we areconvinced he never intended to do so. Promptly on Jonn's appeal , Pope Innocent lll formely annulled the Charta and excommunicated the kingss enemies and all disturbances of the peace. Jonn with unexpected vigor then proceeded against the Barons who, under the terms of the Charta itself, immediately declared war upon the King who had been false to his to his promises, and the following spring Philip's son invaded England A year and four months after Magna Charta had been secured, and while chaos reigned and the future seemed trembling in the balance, the struggle was brought to an end by the sudden death of Jonn

It happened in this way. After one of his masterful retreats from a far superor force, John was feasted by the Burgners of Lynn and at Swinestead Abby, where the Monks set before him lampreys and cider and, partaking thereof gluttonously, he fell ill from acute indigestion. Suffering for nine days in great agony and fever , inflamed by this debauch , he was carried to Newark Castle where he died early in the morning, Tuesday , 19 Oct 1216, in the 49th year of his age. His body , at his desire, was honorably buried in the Cathedral(Cathedral of Worchester.

Did he really mean to keep the Charter? Was he sincere or only bluffing to gain time? His early death gives no positive answer to this question. Dying suddebly in the midst of his successes, John's death opened the way to a compromise and we now find all parties returning to allegiance to his youthful son. Henry lll, then aged ten years, whowas hastily crowned, with William Marshall, Lord Pembroke, as Regent and Protector. Although his son, the Hon. William Marshall, Jr., died

Magna Charta came at a time of great human achievements and in the midst of a generation that has to its credit some of the most enduring accomplishments of the race. That first half of the thirteenth century saw the rise of the great Gothic cathedrals, the developments of the Universities of Europe into the form which they practically retained ever since, and the creation of a litature in every country in Europe that still lives . generation never does merely one thing well. It does all well or none . The after time has inherited more that is of enduring value for the race from that generation than perhaps from any other in human history.

We are living in a most important time in the history of our country. Our responsibility demands our best thought and effort. Shall we be indifernt to so great a need? At such a time as this it is surely a great priveledge to be associated with persons of like mind in a work so truly worthwhile. We Americans are a thoughtful people, and careful thought makes for refinement and leads to good manners and gentle behavior. We all seek the well-being of our society and the influence it may have for the good of our beloved land, for righteousness and truth.

The Great Charter of Liberties has become the Mother of Constitutions The liberties of half the civilized world are derived from Magna Charta It is reconized as the basis of our laws, and of National liberty generally. That which before was vague is now made definate. Longstanding customs,called Common Law, whichad never before been reduced to writing, now for the first time becomexwritten law. No taxation without represesentangon.Liberty is the keynote of the Charter. Liberty for all Englishmen To have and to hold, to them and their heirs, for ever The King is not above the law; the law is invilable. Magna Charta places the King below the law.

Magna Charta is an expression in writing words of the principles of human life which has been either grossly neglected ar altogather forgotten by King John Magna Charta begins and ends with the declaration that the Church shall be free. All that there is in Magna Charta flows out of that.

No free man shall be taken, or imprisoned , or disposeed, or outlawed or banished, or in any way destroyed, nor will we goupon him nor upon him send, except by the legal judgemeny of his peers or bt the law of the land. To no one will we deny, or delay, right or justice." So read the celebrated 39th and 40th sections

A Precedent for the Supreme Court

Section 61 authorized the election of the aforesaid twenty- five Surety Barons who should see that the provisions of the Charta were carried into effect. Their names are not recorded in the Magna Charta, but we we learn them from Matthew Paris' " Chronica Majora."

These Sureties were astonishingly inter- related. Among them were several instances of the father and son, of father-in-law and son-in-law, of brothersand of cousins. They had a common descent from Charlemange . Four-fifths, or twenty of the twenty-five, were related in the degree of 2nd cousins or nearer. Of these twenty-five Surety Barons only seventeen have descendants surviving to the present day and all seventeen are now represented by descendants in the membership of the Magna Charta Dames

James.

The most remarkable portion of Section 61, if not of the whole charter is that which grants unto the Barons, upon the failure of the King to keep his pledges, the right to distress and harass the king by any means in their power. In other words, they had permission to levy war upon the King, and commit other acts of high treason without, according to John's agreement, being guilty of any wrong. An amazing thing, legalized rebellion.

And the English spirit of fair play is crystallized in the final pronouncement of Magna Charta by which the Barons offered that all the concessions which the King made to them would in turn be passed on to their subtenants.

But the events which followed Magna Charta show that although the celebrated Charter had beentruly and completely obtained from the reluctant John, it required constant vigilance on the part of the subjects to maintain his prize unimpaired.

The triumphant success of the popular cause over the orimary obstinacy of John, was a precedent to which the people have always delighted to refer. And we are their beneficiaries. It may be true that the Barons did not know or fully realize what they were moving toward, but they had a very clear and definate idea of what they were trying to get away from; and that was the arbitrary royal will

Ours is a great heritage; Through seven and a quarter centuries, and down through some 30 generations, we trace the chain of events which binds Magna Charta to our celebration here tonay. Pioneer Americans inherited and brought across the sea the institutions of old England. The unwritten Constitutionof England was the constitution of these Dion-

Pioneers in the new world, and into the rights and benefits of Magna Charta they, our ancestors, entered as the lineal descendants of those free men of England to whom those rights and benefits had been assured forever.

God sifted a whole nation that he might send choice grain over into the wilderness- William Staughtonm 1666

The persuit of Genealogy illumines the past and becomes an inspiration for the future. Diary, Good Friday, 6 April 1917 (the dayon which the United States entered World War 1)

There is a most vital relationship, both by chain of events and by inheritance, between that striking scene at Runnemede in 1215 and this meeting here today, celebrating not only the anniversary of the Great Charta but also the 150th year since the inauguration of our first President, General George Washington

If Magna Charta was, as has been sometimes said, a reactionary document, it was reactionary only in that it revived and confirmed liberties that had been forgotten and invaded by royal power. These liberties are part of man's nature and an attribute to human personality. To denny them, to hamper them, to invade them, is to install tyranny in the land. To take a note of them, to build upon them and to appeal to them, is to open the door to that constructive progress whose limits are set only by the spiritual aspiration, the intellectual power and the moral earnestness of man

The Story of Magna Charta is indeed a Romance, a blending of the heroic, the marvelous, the mysterious

(1) It is heroic in that it required the combined bravery of lords and people to withstand the treachery of John.

(2) It is mysterious in its causes, in exactly what happened and in its supreme benefit to mankind, and

(3) It is marvelous, in view of the resourcefulness of Joan, that the people ever accomplished their aim. John certainly was a remarkable man, not all good nor all bad, and that the Barons eventually got him to confirm the Great Charter is also remarkable.

Magna Charta

Magna Charta asserts that great and eternal principle that each individual has inalineable rights, of which no government may deprive him, but to secure which all government exists.

Let all tyrants take notr; Magna Charta has never been repealed.

Magna Charta guarantees freedom.

Freedom is the lesson which England has taught the world.

Pedigrees of the Barons

A list of the Surety Barons will be found at page 30(21)

Roman numerals denote the generations preceding each Surety, whose descendants are numbered with Arabic numerals to denote the order of the children in each generation. For example, if read backwards, that is, from right to left, it is apparent that No. 461552 is the second child of the fifth child of the fifth child of the eldest child of the sixth child of the fourth child of the head of the line.

There there are more than nine children in a family, the letter x is used for the tenth child, y for the eleventh, z for the twelfth,, and t f v s n and e for the thirteenth to eighteenth child respectively.

Because of the incompleteness of the medieval records one cannot be sure that the children in these early families have been listed in the order of their birth.

Where a person's name is printed under only one Baron and King, it is not tobe understood that such person is necessarily descended from only that one, for as a matter of fact most of the persons listed herein are descendedxs from several Kings and Barons. In many cases parents and children, brothers and sisters and cousins having the same name podigree will be found intentionally listed under different Barons, as a means of recording a wider ancestry for the family in view.

Descendants' names arrived too late to be included herein will,at subscriber's request, be printed in the Supplement.

Part III will continue the pedigrees

I NTRODUCTION

It is certain everyone has ancestors, multitudes of them. It is not certain that a man will have surviving descendants. Family names frequently die out. In that connection it is interesting to note that no descendantx in the male line of the Magna Charta Baron has for centuries sa in the House of Lords

Most countries of the old world has legends, as everyone knows, extening the genealogie of their heroes for back to earliest times, and th legends widely differ, some being so blended with mythologh as to be quite uncertain; indeed some of the claims made are wholly impossible.

As we consider ancient sources it is disappointing to find that the barbs and monks and other contempory historians do not agree in many of their details. This is true also of more modern pedigrees, making differenf versions of the same ancestry, too fewof which can at this late day be supported bu original documents. Dates and places have often been too meagerly preserved to enable one now to form a fixed opinion as to the integrity of such pedigrees

It is the task of the complier to select the most fitting items from the meterial which isavailable. Such items the writer has endeavered to assembly and set fourth in convenient form, as an aid to friends interested in pursuing these claims of long descent and, inthe knowledge that to ther it has brought real enjoyment, he has found satisfaction.

Chapter III- Governor Francis Lovelace of New York State and some of His Descendants

Col. and Gov. Francis Lovelace(2-10), Sir William(9),(8), (7a), (6) (5), Richard(4), b abt 1621. He inherited jointly with brother William lands in Shoulden, Kent. He was a Court favorite and page to Charles I, who reigned 1625 to 1649; imprisoned in the Tower of London by Richard Cromwell as an active Stuart partisan, but after the restoration Charles II(whoreigned 1660-to 1685) , made hiCourt Attendant for his loyalty to the Tory Cause during the Puritan Revolution. Heserved the Royalst cause in Wales and commanded Caermarthen Castle from June 1644, until until it was captured by Langborne in Oct. 1645

He came to Virginia in 1650.* In May 1652 he was sent by Gov.Berkley of Virginia to inform Charles II of the surrender of Virginia tothe Parliamentary forces. In 1667 he succeeded Col. Richard Nichols as Gov. of N. Y. His task was to bring the Dutch quietly under English athority. He had fostered social relations between the Dutch and English settler bought land from the Indians; openedthe Boston Post Road and established the First Mail routes to Boston and Philadelphia. He lived in NewCastle N. Y. ,his home standing there until the 19th century He had visited Long Island in Oliver Cromwell's time, and before becoming Gov. of New york he had been Sheriff of Richmond Co and on Staten Island April 2, 1670 h received a deed of Staten Islande from the Indians. (page 255, Manor Houses and Homs of Long Island.) 1928) In 1671 he bought a farm of Anneke Jeno and his heirs, which was confiscated in 1677 by the Duke of York Jan 21, 1671 Gov. Lovelace granted 3,000 acres on Cedar Creek, Sussex Co, Delaware, to Richard Perrot. He was absent on business to Long Island when the Dutch fleet anchored Aug. 7, 1673,opposite Staten Island, and Fort James Surrendered.

He died May 10 , 1663 or 1666, at Woodstock, Oxfordshire, England Some records say unmarried, because his brother Dudley succeeded to his english estate. But in America he had married secretely, when about 36 years of age and was later forced or pursuaded to leave his wife (When he left America did he take his wife and Children with him to England?. I do not believe he did.) S. A. M.) If married when about 35 years years of age. Then he would have married about 1638 S.A.M.)

He married 1659, Blanche Talbot, Although her exact birth date and parentage not found, she was probably of the Talbot line shown in Ancestry of Peter Talbot, of West River and could have been a sister of Richard Talbot, of West River, land. In those days of extreme class feeling it is likely she was ostracized by the Lovelace family as not being as closely associated with r as themselves.

Strongbow drove Roderick out of Waterford and Dublin, whereupon King Henty 11 through jealousy deprived him of a all his titles and he kept only Kildare, butwas lat er reinstated in Leinsester. He was later made Justice of Ireland, which he had helped to conquer.

15- Isabel Clare page 102, Countess of Pembroke, b 1172,, was in 11 1189 married to William Marshall the Protector, Earl of Pembrok e in right of his wife. A crusader of distinction for two years Marshall covered the flight of King Henry 11 from Le Mans to Chinon in 1189, andin a skirmish unhorsed the undutiful Prince Richard Coeur de Lion. None the less, Richard, on his accession promoted William Marshall and confirmed the former King's licen se for his marriage. This match gaveMarshall the rank of an Ear l , which with great estate in Wales and Ireland and he was inveluded in the council of regency which the King appointed in 1190 on his departure for the Third Crusade. Although he quarreled more than once with King John, William Marshall was o one of the few Englishmen who clung to the royal side through t the Baron's war. He was one of John's executors and was subse quently elected regent of the kingdom by the royalist barons in 1216.He die 14 May 1219, at his manor of Caversham, near Readi ing. 29-5 - Johanna Lovelace b abt 1622 and died 1638 m Robert Caesar

29-6 -William Lovelace b abt 1623 or after his father made his will in 1622. He was a professional Soldier. He espoused the cause of the King and was killed at the"Seige " of Carmanthan" Wales about 1648. A marriage license was granted by the Bishop of London on 21 July 1641 for William Lovelace, to marry Joan Follinger and this may be, and was perhaps the son of Sir Wil William Lovelace and his wife Anne Barnes. If he were married in 1641 and killed in 1648 he could have had 3 children. If born in 1623 and married in 1641, then he would have been 18 years old when married

A search of the records has shown no will of William Lovelace on the records at that time. In Virginia Mag. and Gen Records Vol. 24 p 81 shows marriages betwe n Sandys, Gilberts, Raleigh, Barnes, Digges and Wyatts etc. In Vol 23 page 1-0 Mary Diggon in her will bequ eathed to Francis Lovelace 10#. Will dated 1643 and proved 1643. Mary Digges of Chilham Castle, Kent, youngest dr of Sir Digges, Knight, etc. She a sister of Edward Diggs of Va., and Gov. Will dated 1643 and gives to others and then to Joan Joan Lovell my Maid Servent 10# , It seems to me that William Lovelace was perhaps off at war, , perhaps was not getting enough to support a family and she was working to help support the family. I believe here that this Francis Lovelace may have been Francis Lovelace, son of Sir William Lovelace, and Joan Lovell was the wife of William Lovelace Here the Lovelace and Diggs famil s had married in-termarried on Several occasions.

30-1John Lovelace went to New York and was known as a Nephew of Gov. Francis Lovelace

30-2 Francis Lovelace , came to New York and drifted down to Baltimore and he and a partner were in business togather, as shown i in Court Records.. He died in 1783 leaving a will. In the settl ement of his property, the records list women's apparel and othe r things which would probably indicate that he was married, but perhapshad no children. He had cows etc. There is a record in Baltimore where of Francis Lovelace married Mary Ivor, and we know of no other, other than Gov. Francis Lovelace of New York. and is said to have married Blanche Talbot as a 2nd marriage

1 Richard FitzGilbert, first lord of Clare and his wife Lady Rohese, had, besides Gilbert de Tonebruge, who appears in Chapter 5 and 28, another son page 58

11- Robert FitzRichard, stewart to King Henry 1, He obtained from the monarch the Barony of Dunmow, in Essex and dying about 1134 Had by his wife, Maud, " Lady of Brandham" d abt 1134, had by his wife, Maud. " Lady of Bradham", d 1140, dr of Simon de At. Liz, page 189, a son

111 Walter FitzROBERT, second lord of Dunmow Castle, eldest son. In the controversity between the Earl of Moreton, brother of King R Richard , , and the Bishop of Ely, Walter adherted to the Bishop, and was given the custody of the Castle of Rye, in Suffolk He m first Maud, who died in 1140, dr of Richard deLucie and sister of Geoffrey, Bishop of Winchester. With her he had the lordship of Disce, in Norfolk. He m second Margaret and, dying in 1198, was succeeded by the eldest son.

4- Robert FITZWALTER, the Surety, third lord of Dunmow Castle, leader of the Magna Charta Barons and their Army, styled " Marshall of th Army of God and the holyChurch."The first public act recorded of this Subsequently important Baron who was standardbearer of the city of London, conveys at first a bad impression of him. It is recorded that the 5th , John, 1203, Robert FitzWalter being trusted, togather with Sair de Quincy, also a Surety, to keep the Castle of Ruil, in France, delivered it up to the King of gthat realm as soon as he came before it with an ~~XXXXX~~ Army" This appears to imply not less of Disloyalty than of covardice; but a short time in proved to which of these motives it was to be assigned. At that time the Barons, not only those abroad, were preparing to compel King John to keep his promise in the matter the proposed satutes, and several conspiracies to this end were discovered, whereon Robert FitzWalter was materially c concerned. On the discovery of his" treasonable practices, FitzWalter, with his wife and children, sought refuge in France; but in the following year, 1213, his friends persuaded him to return home and, with other barons, he was reconciled to King John. But his friendship was only of short duration, for soon it was discovered that he was still plotting against the King in the interest of reform in the Goverment, so his residence in London, the Castle of Baynard, was in consequence, almost entirely destroyed, and the hatred between John,and FitzWalter was violent in the greatest degree. His lands were were seized, which course His lands were were seized, which course effectually secured himt to the discontent barons and the people. The active spirit of Fitz Walter made him a desirable leader for their Party, and he was se selected as one of the cOmmissioners to treat of a composure of diferences at a meeting at Erith Church and subsequently was elec ted their leader.

After the granting of Magna Charta, when King John endeavored to elude his promises, FitzWalter was one of the committy of the Bar baromia l party which went to France to invite the Dauphine to accept the throne of England , and on this Prince's coming he with William de Mandeville and William de Huntington field, the Sureti ties, reduced the counties of Essex and Suffolk to the authority of the Dauphine. Upon the accession of Henry lll, FitzWalter, then a prisoner, with the majority of the rebel barons finding the Dauphine a useless political factor, dropped him and returned and returned to their allegiance, and engaged to ship him back to France. In 1218, although a prisoner, he was allowed to assume the cross and join a crusade, when he took part in the famous seige of Damietta, returned home, and died a peaceful death in 1234, and was buried before the High-alter of Dunmow Priory. Notwithstanding his enmity to King John and Henry lll, and the frequent confiscations of his property. FitzWalter died in 1234-5 posessed of an extensive estate. The monk Mathew Paris, records; i in the same year 1234/5 at the advent of our Lord, Robert FitzWalter, a baron of illustrious race, and renowned in feats of Arms, went the way of all flesh". His first wife was Gunors, daughter of Robert, second lord de Valoines, and he m , second, Roese, who survived him. By his first wife FitzWalter had 2 Matilda the Fair, called " Maid Marion", said to have been poisoned by King John, see page 9; and 5- Walter FitzRobert, eldest son and successor, who in the 24th of Henry(King) lll paid into the exchequer a fine of 300 marks for livery of his lands, and eighteen years later had a military summons to march against the Welsh.
